

Outreach Mission - Nick Notas

Hi Nick, wanted to say some important stuff, I hope you will find this valuable.

I loved so much the amount of value you bring to the dating industry for men.

So many men are CONFUSED about the way they need to deal with women these days, and almost everyone attacks themselves for the mistakes that they have made when countering a woman instead of accepting, learning, and improving.

Quick introduction, my name is Ofek, I am 23 and I have been following many dating coaches, and you caught my attention when I was looking for a dating coach to work with.

I am a growth consultant & marketing expert who chose to work with a dating coach to grow his work and help more men live better.

Of course, it's coming from a personal situation... but I won't talk about that now.

I analyzed the way that you operate on social media a lot. I've even found an old video on youtube from 7 years ago called "Interview with Nick Notas" in "Good Morning BU", I saw that video and I was very happy to see that even then, you've brought a lot of value in a very short time, and that made me want to reach out and see if we can work together.

But, I also noticed that you aren't monetizing your social media enough, Your Instagram isn't updated since April 2021, and your Youtube videos have much value for men but aren't pushed in the right way.

I'm 100% convinced you can get much more clients, make your current clients worth more money to you, and reach with a lot of value to men that don't know you.

There are tons of valuable tools that can make you explode on Social Media, especially with the amount of value that you bring to the table.

I want to have a call with you to see if we can make it happen.

I am sure we can blow everyone's mind.

Send me an email back if you are interested and I will make you a free example to show you how much difference this can make.

Talk to you soon, Ofek.
