

Suggestions for when staff can give a “Lion Pride” ticket

Being helpful to a teacher, substitute, or aide	Quickly getting started on an assignment	Having all materials for class	Working quietly on a difficult task	Entering or leaving the room quietly
Following directions given by all staff members	Submitting classwork, projects, or homework assignments on time	Entering or exiting the lunchroom/APR appropriately	Getting assignment information independently after an absence	Sitting quietly during an assembly or bus dismissal
Showing improvement in grades, behavior, or homework completion	Behaving appropriately in the hallway or lunchroom	Being respectful, apologizing when necessary	Including others into a group setting	Dealing with a frustrating situation appropriately
Helping a student catch up after being absent	Asking before using something that belongs to others	Showing concern for others	Walking in the halls quietly and staying to the right	Congratulating another student who got a good grade or won a contest
Displaying good sportsmanship	Acting as a positive role model	Raising his/her hand to answer a question	Working well in a group	Telling adult about a dangerous situation
Working on task appropriately	Cleaning up in the classroom	Using computers, laptops, or other materials appropriately	Lining up quickly and quietly when signaled	Being on time to class
Throwing away/Recycling trash in the lunchroom	Playing safely on the playground	Keeping his/her hands to themselves when walking in the hallway	Keeping a clean area in the lunchroom	Respecting rights and privacy of others
Listening quietly to a speaker	Holding the door for others	Using respectful language	Picking up litter in the halls or outdoors	Sharing an opinion in a respectful way
Using an appropriate tone of voice	Using good manners (i.e. Please and Thank You)	Speaking politely to another student or staff member	Using time wisely	Being a problem solver