

NEW TRIAL- NEED FEEDBACK

Talk with me and lets discuss growth- sample of work pasted

Hey Darrik,

Being totally honest with you, I'm currently looking for websites that I know have a high potential for improvement and I can confidently say I was impressed by your given workout plan and opt in email page.

Your website, GamerBody, I noticed you sell around six products as your merchandise; however, I believe you could change this and add items and also a social networking system. That's for items.

I can only assume from what I've seen from an outsiders perspective, and taking from this I've noticed that you've created a personal brand with your YouTube channel and have then gone onto selling merchandise for your regular viewers. I've come up with a couple ideas so far to cater to this, including an online group community.

A sample of my work is below, Id love to hear your thoughts and feedback, and if you feel it fits with your ambitions, give me a heads up and we can discuss these ideas further.

Best regards,
Keira.
