BASIC DETAILS

- Wedding Date: 9/16/2023
- Venue: Royal Sonesta Downtown
- Ceremony start time (1.5 hours before sunset is recommended for best photos): 5:00 pm but it's flexible
- Number of guests you are inviting: approx. 190

- Number of guests you estimate will attend: approx 165
- Number of Wedding Attendants for Partner One (traditionally “Bridesmaids”): 6 or 8
- Number of Wedding Attendants for Partner Two (traditionally “Groomsmen”): 8
- Is your budget flexible? If yes, please explain your parameters:
Target budget of 70K. Can go a few thousand above if necessary but we want to plan as much as possible in advance to prevent going over this target.
- Do you have any commitments that will impact planning? (grad school, 10+ day vacation, travel for work, taking a break in June because your sister is getting married, etc.)
 - Life changes and that is why we are here. Please inform us of any changes in the planning timeline as they occur. Medical emergencies are the number one reason for a sudden change.
We have a wedding in South Africa April 1st and will be gone for approx. 1+ weeks
Nick is studying for the CFA and Victoria is looking/between transitioning jobs.

FAMILY AND FRIEND DYNAMICS

- If any parents are divorced, please describe your expectations for their interactions on the wedding day.
Neither parents are divorced. No concerns in this area.
- Do you have any guests that you anticipate being a challenge in any way? Examples include expressing unwanted or unnecessary opinions, not following instructions, trying to make an uninvited toast, wanting in the getting ready room, moving décor to their liking, etc.
No concerns about any of the guests.
- Do you have any concerns about alcohol for anyone?
We have a lively crew but no one is disrespectful or careless
- Are any key players not attending the wedding? We want to ensure your vendors are aware of this so they can be sensitive to this on your day.
We do not expect any absence of important guests at this point.
- Do your family or a group of guests speak another language or have cultural expectations we either need to plan around or be prepared to discuss if they ask about or give pushback to your choices on the wedding day?
N/A
- Are there friends or family that you anticipate wanting to help in the planning process and/or on the wedding day? What are your desired parameters or boundaries for this?

Victoria's sister and MOH - Gemma, Mother of the bride (Sarah Berto) and mother of the groom (Jan Alexander). Nick's brother and Co-Best Man Sean. Also other co-best man Charlie. Would love for everyone to be involved, no one is overbearing and are not worried about this.

- Is there anything else you would like us to know?

MEDICAL

While we are aware that your family is privy to your medical history, if something happens, we would like to be a sober-minded guide in an emergency. This information is considered personal and confidential. It is not required to share but if it can assist in your planning (speaker spacing for pacemakers, etc.), please let us know!

- Food allergies dietary restrictions for Couple or other VIPs:

Uncle Steve (groom's family) and Uncle George (bride's family) both have a shellfish allergy. Uncle George has a few medical conditions and can't drink any alcohol.

- Medical Conditions of Couple or VIP guests (especially those affected by heat, lighting, sound and electrical equipment):

N/A

BOOKING PROCESS

- What other planning companies did you consider when interviewing for a coordinator or planner? Wedicity, Naturally yours events, HBIC weddings
- What did you like about them? Had a great online portal for seating arrangements
- Why did you choose BURST Event Co?

We felt strong rapport with Alexis. We were impressed with her attention to detail based on the resources provided to clients as well as general knowledge about the process.

Additionally, we did appreciate her empathetic approach to our desire to be cost conscious. We frequently found other planners were not interested in discussing cost constraints.
