

Take Back All the Houses Calendar

Updated 12/27/2018

Please check back soon!

We are experimenting with a new Google calendar and event map. Check it out here. We will be adding more events in the new year!

Save the Date! Weekend of February 2-3 Swing Left 2019-2020 Strategy Live Stream

Coming Soon to a House Party Near You

Swing Left will host a live stream sharing 2019-2020 strategy including an update on target races, the strategic imperative of expanding the electorate, and the kickoff of our voter registration push. More resources, including how to register your house party, will be available soon.

Mark your calendars—and find a living room or common room near you to host the live stream! All you need is a computer or laptop with an internet connection. We will post more details as they are available.

Learn more the week of January 28 via a house party host call. Volunteers who are not hosting a house party are welcome to join the call. The prep call for include voter registration training, both long distance and on the ground.

Looking for someplace larger than your living room? Many public libraries let you use their common rooms or meeting rooms, if the event is free and open to the public. Please see our Greater Boston event venue guide for more information; we are in the process of adding public library room reservation links.

Election night watch parties and other fundraisers have been held in the backroom at Aeronaut Brewing. Many groups (including Swing Left Greater Boston bar night) have met at Democracy Brewing. Please see our Greater Boston event venue guide for more information.
