Application Name: Amtsilati Pusat Mobile

Introduction

Amtsilati Pusat Mobile is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard your information when you use our mobile application. By using this application, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this policy.

Information We Collect

The app may request access to the following:

1. Internet Access: While many features in this app work offline, certain features (like book orders, portal parent to find information about children, and accessing articles) may require an internet connection.
2. Notification Access: Notifications are primarily used to inform parents about their children who are studying at the pondok. These notifications provide important updates or reminders. If needed in the future, this feature can also be extended for general notifications. You can manage notification settings in your device preferences.
3. Location Access: We request access to your location to provide accurate Qibla direction and prayer times based on your geographical location. The prayer times are calculated directly on your device without needing an internet connection.

Use of Information

We only use the information collected to improve your experience within the app. Specifically:

- Location data is used for generating Qibla direction and local prayer schedules based on your current location.
- Notifications are used for sending updates about children at the pondok, with the possibility of future notifications for broader purposes.
- Internet access is used to retrieve content such as articles and facilitate book orders via WhatsApp.

No Content Sharing

This app does not share your personal data or any content you access with other users. All personal data, such as location and usage patterns, are kept private and secure.
