

Part 4 of the Constitution shall be amended to add the following and all subsequent articles shall be renumbered accordingly:

Article 24 - Right to Confidence

§1. The right of citizens of Simdemocracy to petition for the impeachment of any Government official shall not be infringed.

§2. An impeachment referendum for any officials may be triggered by a petition signed by at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the electorate.

§2.1. The electorate shall be defined as the number of people who voted in the most recent presidential election.

§2.2. One may sign a petition of impeachment regardless of if they had actually voted in the previous election.

§2.3. Only citizens may sign a petition of impeachment.

§2.4. With a two-thirds (2/3rds) majority vote in referendum the petitioned individual shall be automatically relieved of the position or positions stated in the petition.

§3. Any person who has been removed from a position may be banned from the position, or other related positions for any period of time as designated by the petition.
