Key Notes from Session

Attendance at Virtual College Events is Important to College Admissions (now more than ever)

- Many colleges are using this as a way to gauge interest and filter applicants, especially with schools choosing to go test blind!
- One way to access these is the Virtual National College Fairs this spring: Click this link to Register & Attend

Testing Updates

College Board Announcements

- Discontinuing essay in SAT
- Discontinuing SAT Subject Tests
- Exploring “flexible” and digital options for SAT this summer

Recommendation for taking SATs - wait until March/April when more news comes out.

- SATs may be digital or not required at all.
- May be dependent on Specific college admission policies: Test Blind or Test Optional

Juniors/Families Should Schedule one-on-one College List Building session with Chris White: <https://calendly.com/cwhite-35/college-career-check-ins>
