

Activity Choice Board

1 Use a pencil to write your name with an upper case letter to start and lowercase for the rest (see attached page).	2 Count some books or toys. Make a group of 5, Make a group of 3 and a group of 2. Make a group of 4 and 1.	3 Search for letters in the fridge or pantry. How many Ts did you find? _____	4 Play school with someone at home. Be the teacher and teach them something you enjoy learning about.
5 Practice counting. How high did you count today? _____	6 String beads or pasta onto a pipe cleaner, straw or string. How many beads fit? _____	7 Complete 1 name writing practice page.	8 Play outside (with adult supervision). Use your scientist eyes to find something new outside you have not noticed before.
9 Pick out 10 toys (cars, stuffed animals, blocks, etc) then make a pattern using those objects	10 Sort your toys by color.	11 Practice drawing groups of circles.	12 Practice your weekly letters and sight words.
13 Play outside with an adult. Find something interesting to share with your family.	14 Count all of the door knobs in your house. How many did you find? _____	15 Count the chairs in your house. How many did you find? _____	16 Show someone in your family how you can skip, hop, gallop and jump. Can you even hop on one foot?
17 Practice tying a pair of shoes.	18 Help sort the laundry by color. Help fold or put it away when it is clean 😊	19 Write letters in sand, rice, shaving cream or even finger paint!	20 Draw a picture of your family. Label each family member.

