Hey [Name],

I know how confusing online business can be. With so much noise leading us away from our integrity it is a challenge to find business strategies that suit multi-passionate, intuitive types like us.

That's why I'm so excited to tell you about the Share Your Brilliance summit.! The goal for this summit is different than most. It's going to be more like an online retreat than a summit with morning movement sessions, day time learning sessions and wrap up each day with a sound healing to integrate it all. Plus, there is a theme for each day tailored to business people just like you.

For 5 days, May 23 to 27, Natasha Berta of Connected Marketing is bringing you presentations from 25+ heart-led business people who have found ways to grow their business without selling out on their soul. You'll hear about everything from mindset, sustainable business foundations, content creation + creativity, your offer, how to reach more people, and more.

For example, I'm going to be talking all about [presentation topic]!

We're featuring some pretty big names, including:

- George Kao
- Danielle Gardner
- Find the right ones for your audience

- And a whole lot more!

There's a free option and an affordable VIP pass with tons of goodies.

There's more I'd love to tell you about this summit, but I'll let you check out all the details for yourself.
