

If you clicked on this application. The Jazzinators and our many professional musician mentors are glad you have taken this step to gather information about our youth band, New Orleans Jazz/Dixieland/America’s genre of jazz music. We hope you and your parents/guardians will ask many questions to make you feel at home with us.

We REHEARSE together Tuesdays, at the Soulis home(address below)...muster @6:50pm, rehearse 7-9pm. We conclude with a Q&A + treats. Note: the front door is always unlocked, so parents, please feel free to walk in as you are always welcome.

* Possible: Ohlone Flea Market performances - Second Sat/month. (9 am -12 noon -TBD)

* Additional performances will be scheduled... performance dates posted at www.eastbaytradjazz.org

* Yearly SCHOLARSHIP AWARD: Attendance at rehearsals and performances, at a minimum of 80%, will determine scholarships to the Jazz camp. When you are granted a scholarship, we expect you will be with the Jazzinators an additional year. We would want you to share the many valuable music/life lessons learned at camp with all in the band.

* Service hours will be awarded for every hour performing, and some schools allow rehearsal hours.

* Please give your email address to John or Sharon (if you have one), see below
John’s home # (510) 657-0243 / jssoulis@att.net * cell (510) 366-8153 is used only when we are away from home.

* John Soulis' address: * 39594 Platero Place, Fremont, 94539

The COST of reproduction of the musical book is $35. If you can, provide your own 3-ring binder (1½ -2”) and alpha-dividers. We will provide available musical instruments while the student is a part of our youth band.
