

Name:

Color:

Immigration Summative Reading Assessment

After carefully reading The All-American Slurp, please respond to the questions below. Please circle the correct answer and write in full sentences. Don't forget to use evidence from the text to support your reasons!

1. Which of the following best describes the main character?

- A. She has just moved to China and is struggling to figure out how to fit in because she wears jeans all of the time and all of the other girls wear skirts.
- B. He has just moved to America and gets along with the other boys in his school easily.
- C. She has moved to America from China and is embarrassed by how her family eats their food in front of other Americans.
- D. She likes to cook Chinese food and doesn't want her daughter to wear jeans when she moves to America.

2. Write two personality traits that describe the main character and provide evidence from the text for each trait.

---

---

---

---

---

3. Which of the following answers could be used as evidence to support why the prediction below might happen?

Prediction: I think that Meg and the main character will continue to stay best friends.

A. I think they will stay friends because they can bond over the similar experiences they had trying to eat with each other's families.

B. I think they will stay friends because they are both girls.

C. I think they will stay friends because Meg likes Chinese food.

D. I think they will stay friends because Meg likes the main characters brother.

4. Write two hardships the main character faces as a result of immigrating to America. Provide evidence from the text to support your claim.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

5. The reason why the author decided to talk about the main character's trip to Dairy Queen was to...

- A. Describe her first trip to Dairy Queen in America.
- B. Let the reader know that she has a Dairy Queen in her neighborhood.
- C. Show that the main character and her friend really like milkshakes.
- D. Make it clear to the reader that foreigners aren't the only ones who make unusual noises when they are eating.

6. Describe how the main character changed from the first dinner party to the end of the story.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---