Changing is car
He is angry about the price of everything going insane
He doesn't have a lot of money/ car problems/ winter is coming
He is embarrassed by his hold car
He would be proud of himself and released
That he don't take care of his and that he is lazy “ Dam man, my car isn't ready yet for the winter, I'm short in money and I don't know if I would be able to my car

He had a new car, ready for the winter, no money problems and he wouldn't be anymore(about that)
His, girl and friend
So proud and confident
A new car
“ I sometimes imagine myself with a brand new car and a new chicks”

He s that he is too scared to change his car because he might have more than he currently have Himself
Yeah he changed his car a year ago and it's even worse than before. He thinks he failed because he didn't choose a reliable car.
By the reliability of the car.
Volkswagen, , and cause they are all pretty good and reliable cars.
the passion of car.
the lack of motivation, lack of ambition, fear of the change
The VW starting to become more popular, he has done his research in the past week on VW.

OPTin page:

How many times have you sent your car to the garage since last winter? A lot I'll say! Lucky you, I got what you need to fix your problem!

Look out what I can promise to you:

- A reliable car that will save you a lot of trips to the garage.
- A one-year warranty.
- oil change is completely free PLUS a 50% discount on the second one.
- Bring your old car and receive a discount on your next car AND a free set of for the winter.

some clients who were completely disappointed with their purchase. And that's why we are now giving one full year of warranty.

From now there are only two options left to you. First, you continue your life as if nothing happened. Option number two, you wake the fuck up and make a wise decision.
