

Name:
Date:
Score:	/ 30

Part A: Grammar - Modal Verbs of Probability (#1), Highlight the correct form of the modal verb of probability in each of the following sentences.

1. Jim always comes to class. In fact, I have never seen him miss a class. He is not here today.
a. He must be absent.
b. He must have been absent.
2. "Why is the door unlocked?" "Hmmm, I'm not sure..."
a. I may leave it unlocked when I went out earlier."
b. I may be leaving it unlocked when I went out earlier."
c. I may have left it unlocked when I went out earlier."
3. Last night, it was really warm outside when I went to bed. This morning, there is snow on the ground outside.
a. The weather really may have changed.
b. The weather really must have changed.
4. Next week, I am starting a new class at school. I'm worried that...
a. it might be difficult.
b. it might have been difficult.
5. I did not see John yesterday and I looked around the school for him.
a. He could not be at school yesterday.
b. He could not have been at school yesterday.

6. The price of that computer is $1200, but I heard my friend bought it two months ago for $900.
- a. The computer must be on sale.
 - b. The computer must have been on sale.
7. Suzanne said she watered my plant everyday when I was away on holiday. Now, the plant is dead.
- a. She could not water it.
 - b. She could not have watered it.
8. When we go inside my apartment now, we have to be very quiet.
- a. My roommate could be sleeping.
 - b. My roommate could have slept.
 - c. My roommate could sleep.
9. The student disappeared suddenly from class two weeks ago. Nobody can contact him nowadays.
- a. He may go back to his country.
 - b. He may be going back to his country.
 - c. He may have gone back to his country.
10. "Yesterday, I ate 19 hot dogs in thirteen minutes!" "No way! That's impossible!..."
- a. You couldn't do that!"
 - b. You couldn't have done that!"

Part B: Grammar - Modal Verbs of Probability (#2) Complete the following sentences with the correct Modal Verb of Probability.

11. I am not very sure if my friend is at school today. He (? / be) here today.
might/ may/ could

12. You only woke up five minutes ago. You (? / finish) making breakfast already!
couldn't/ can't have finished

13. I do not know where she is from, but she is speaking Spanish, so she (? / be) from Mexico.
might/ may/ could

14. She did not have enough money to buy a brand-new Toyota, but now she is driving a different car than before. She (? / buy) it used.
might/ may/ could have bought it used

15. When I came home last night, the cake was all gone. Now, my dog is sick.
He (? / eat) it.

Must have eaten it

Part C: Grammar - Could / Should + Perfect Infinitive. Write criticisms or past possibilities for the following sentences.

16. "I'm sorry I'm late. Traffic was very busy!"

"You..."

Should have left earlier/ you should have called me

17. Last night, a crazy man attacked me when I was walking home.

He...

Could have killed me

18. He lives with a Korean roommate in this North American city because he only used a Korean website to look for apartments.

He...

He should have used a Canadian website

19. I told my friends I could not go out with them to a movie last night because I thought my homework would take a long time to do. I actually finished my homework very fast.

I...

I could have seen a movie last night

20. "Teacher, I didn't do my homework because I missed class yesterday and didn't know that we had homework."

"You..."

Should have asked your teacher!

Part D: Grammar - Needn't + Perfect Infinitive or "didn't need to..."
Choose the correct form to complete the following sentences.

21. I...(wake up) early today because it is a holiday. It was nice waking up at 11am!

I didn't need to

22. She bought a new computer because hers was slow. I told her that her computer was fine, but that it had a virus. She...(buy) the new computer.

Needn't have bought

23. You...(make) dinner for me because I told you I wasn't very hungry. Why did you make this?

You needn't have made

24. He only wears glasses when he reads. Because of this, he...(wear) glasses at the movie theatre last night.

Didn't need to

25. It was really warm yesterday so we...(use) the heater in our home.

Didn't need to

Part E: Vocabulary. Answer the questions with a Unit Ten vocabulary word.

26. What is the verb we use to say when we kill all the mice or insects in our home?
27. What is a noun that means “many different kinds?”
28. What is an adjective that means “many people want this?”
29. What is a verb that means to become small in size?
30. What is an adverb that means “extreme and sudden?”