Due to being disabled, it can occasionally take me additional time to complete art requests. You will be given a window of one week for smaller projects, but these deadlines are always flexible unless otherwise discussed

Rush orders incur an additional fee to be discussed.

Each sketch takes me approximately 2-5 hours (as a maximum) and will likely be completed live on stream. If I anticipate a sketch taking more than 5 hours, I will refund you or negotiate how much detail I can include. If your art isn't completed during the stream you paid, It will likely be completed either off stream or during one of the art streams that follow.

Please allow 2-4 months for animation requests.
