

Closing “Cheat Sheet” for 3

You may use these closings for the project. Each needs to be timed out at your pace. It can be filled out and adapted for two, three or four students. Whomever closes the production should practice each closing and fill in the amount of time it takes to read each one. Remember to say “STOP!” after any closing.

1. (____ seconds) This has been _____ /
_____ and _____ for _____ news (Call sign).

2. (____ seconds) Thank you for listening to today’s newscast and Time For Poetry. This has been
_____ / _____ and _____ for _____ news (Call sign).

3. (____ seconds) We hope you’ve enjoyed today’s programming. Thank you for listening to today’s newscast and Time For Poetry. This has been _____ /
_____ and _____ for _____ news (Call sign). Remember: (radio station slogan)

4. (____ seconds) Thank you for listening to today’s newscast and Time For Poetry. This has been
_____ / _____ and
_____ for _____ news (Call sign) Remember: (radio station slogan)

_____ Our sponsors have been: (Sponsor) _____, and (Sponsor) _____,

5. (____ seconds) Thank you for listening to today’s newscast and Time For Poetry. This has been
_____ / _____ and
_____ for _____ news (Call sign) Remember: (radio station slogan)

_____ Our sponsors have been: (Sponsor) _____, and (Sponsor) _____, Stay tuned for more music with: (Student DJ)

6. (____ seconds) Thank you for listening to today’s newscast and Time For Poetry. This has been
_____ / _____ and
_____ for _____ news (Call sign) Remember: (radio station slogan)

_____ Our sponsors have been: (Sponsor) _____, (Sponsor slogan) _____, and (Sponsor) _____, (Sponsor slogan)
_____ Stay tuned for more music with: (Student DJ) _____