

RESOLUTION 2023-####

A RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
OF SHASTA COUNTY
INVOKING GOV'T CODE 25201
ELECTION OVERSIGHT

September 12, 2023

WHEREAS (1), Public trust in elections has been a focus of increased national and local attention, and

WHEREAS (2), Since the general election of 2016, results of elections have been strongly challenged by both major political parties, and

WHEREAS (3), Dozens of lawsuits across the U.S. seeking to have discovery and obtain direct evidence possessed by elections officials have been stalled or refused, and

WHEREAS (4), Certain local election races have been independently evaluated by outside persons. Their reports have all shown concerning anomalies and statistics,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED (1), the Board of Supervisors desire to enhance the public trust of all elections held in the County, ensure that all future election matters are fair and fully transparent, and increase election integrity and security, and

BE IT RESOLVED (2), this is accomplished by invoking Gov't Code 25201 which reads:

"Subject to the provisions of the Elections Code, the board may establish, abolish, and change election precincts, appoint inspectors, clerks, and judges of election, canvass all election returns, declare the result, and order the county elections official to issue certificates of election."

BE IT RESOLVED (3), the Board may, at any time, invoke this statute and create oversight or advisory panels including, but not limited to, appointments of individuals with delegated authorities and responsibilities, or any other appropriate actions, and

BE IT RESOLVED (4), the Board may create and enact ordinances, county policies, and other lawful actions to further the cause of increasing trust in our local elections.
