November 2025
Unsung Hero
Samantha Subokow

This year's November Unsung Hero is Samantha Subokow. Sam is very involved in many activities and her commitment has led her to thrive in leadership positions. She is a field hockey captain, DECA vice president, head yearbook editor, executive board activities coordinator for Student Government, and a member of the National Honors Society. Academic wise, Sam holds a high GPA and is enrolled in the OCC program at Lacey. She holds a high academic drive for herself and gives her best effort in everything she does. Sam holds multiple varsity letters including fall, winter, and spring sports. Sam is always willing to help her classmates out and provide assistance when needed and continuously promotes school spirit when completing activities. Sam is a role model for Lacey Township High School and always has a positive attitude. Congratulations Sam!
