

Hey Bismark,

I recently came across your Youtube channel and I really enjoyed your video on why women instantly dislike some men.

I laughed when you talked about how some men sound like Alvin the Chipmunk despite being big and muscly.

I went and checked out your “Women Whisperer” program and read through the sales page

I went ahead and wrote a new beginning section (attached at the bottom) that gets readers addicted to reading it all the way through by piquing their curiosity and amplifying their desires

Are you interested in optimizing your page to get more sales?
