

Hello Joshua

I reached out to your content from youtube by searching for some nutrition bits of advice, and I was stunned by your relationship with your audience.

Then I search for more of yours videos, to see how you get so close to them.

Then I realized you have no landing page or a newsletter.

To see how you get so close to them, I searched for more videos. I eventually run into your website and I noticed you don't have a landing page or a newsletter

My friend, Joshua I'm here to help you.

I'm a copywriter and I help small businesses to get what they dreamt of in the beginning.

I have some strategies to share with you on how to tease more your audience and make them buy your stuff like Christmas presents.

Let's hop on a 15-minute Zoom call, to know each other.

Best regards, L.
