

Bachelor of Business Administration in Project Management - Minor in Faith-Business Ethics

HBI University

Course Duration: 3 years

Credit Hours: 135 (including minor)

Program Description

The Bachelor of Business Administration in Project Management at HBI University provides students with a strong foundation in managing business projects, ensuring efficiency, and leading teams within corporate and nonprofit settings. The program integrates business principles with project management methodologies, preparing graduates for leadership roles in business operations, entrepreneurship, and consulting.

Students will develop expertise in strategic planning, financial management, stakeholder communication, and risk assessment. The curriculum emphasizes the importance of ethical decision-making, leadership, and sustainability in business project execution.

The Minor in Faith-Business Ethics focuses on integrating Christian values into business practices. Students will explore topics such as ethical leadership, biblical financial stewardship, corporate social responsibility, and faith-based business decision-making. This minor equips graduates to apply integrity and ethical standards in business environments.
