

Select an article from one of the sources linked from the News Sources page and answer the following questions.

1. Read the article and list the source, author and title.
2. Summarize the article. Who is the audience? Find a source that gives background information on at least one aspect of this story; how are they connected?
3. What is the tone of the article? Critical, Positive, Negative, Informative, etc. Explain.
4. What is the author's perspective? Is there any bias? How does this align with your own point of view?
5. Does this article help improve your understanding of the topic? Why/Why not?
6. If you could share this article with one person who would it be and why?

