RESOLUTION

WHEREAS: Free the Facts, a non-partisan and non-profit think tank, is hosting an event on campus on Wednesday, October 16th, from 6:15 PM-7:45 PM on the topic of student loans in Wingate 302.

WHEREAS: Free the Facts strives to help young Americans form their own opinions, create solutions, and meaningfully participate in the national debate about our country's biggest challenges through three core commitments: 1) We don't tell you what to think. We just make sure you can, 2) We connect today's experts with tomorrow's leaders and, 3) Problems aren't partisan.

WHEREAS: Free the Facts is bringing two policy experts that present for interested students and faculty on campus.

WHEREAS: The two policy experts are Lindsay Hayes, President & CEO, and Tom Church, Senior Policy Adviser. Ms. Hayes has served as a writer and communications consultant in the White House and the U.S. Senate, for a Cabinet-level agency, and on two presidential campaigns. Hayes received her master's degree and Ph.D. in political communication from the University of Maryland, where she taught communications courses for over a decade. She also holds a bachelor's degree in political science and communication from Boston College. Mr. Church is a research fellow at the Hoover Institution. He studies income inequality, poverty, health care policy, entitlement reform, and immigration reform. He has conducted research on developing supplemental statistics to better measure income, poverty, and health insurance coverage. He also contributes to the Hoover Institution's immigration reform initiative. Church received his master's degree in public policy with honors from Pepperdine University, specializing in economics and international relations. He has a bachelor's degree in mathematics and political science from the University of Michigan.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: The Wake Forest Student Government sponsors the Free the Facts student loans event on Wednesday, October 16th.

Respectfully submitted,

Cole Gibson
Senator

Miles Middleton
Speaker of the House
