

The New York Times

VOL. LXIII DE. 31,339

NEW YORK, Friday February 16, 1988 - 2 PAGES. 25 CENTS EACH

The Gagliano Crime Family Historic Pictures and Paperwork Found In Residents of Mr. Mrs Antonio Gagliano

Friday Feb 16, 1988:

The New York Police and FBI has recently discovered history, The government has recently uncovered Pictures and Other daily items That the family used in their everyday use.

The Southside precinct Chief made a speech on Tuesday in the middle of the night which went into tremendous detail.

On December 3, 1900 Antonio Gagliano Was Born Along With his twin brother. At the age of 5 his father had gotten arrested for reckless driving that then turned to a shootout with police. The father Salvatore Gagliano Killed 2 police officers trying to defend his family.

The leaders realized the threat he and his family were put into.

The Day Has Come:

Now, The day has come that Salvatore Gagliano Has passed. Antonio, son of Salvatore, hopes to follow his fathers path in crime and corporation. Although he also does not want to do major crime

Documents suggest that in 1991 The Gagliano Crime Family ceased all criminal operations and returned to normal life. This is an image of the christmas family photo that was taken after Antonio's Father was released. into the wealth bootlegging and racketeering held and was hooked.

The Day Has Come:

Now, The day has come that Salvatore Gagliano Has passed. Antonio, son of Salvatore, hopes to follow his fathers path in crime and corporation. Although he also does not want to do major crime

