

Summer Reading Response Chart (Fiction)

Name _____

Title of Chosen Novel _____

Author _____

Directions: After reading the novel, fill in each box with the appropriate responses.

Selection of text  Discuss why you selected this particular novel. Be specific. Write a minimum of three sentences.
Favorite and Least Favorite Characters  Identify your favorite and least favorite character.  Explain what you like/dislike about each character.	Favorite Character:	Least Favorite Character:
	Include a description with supporting text:	Include a description with supporting text:
	What do you like?	What do you dislike?
Quotes  Select two relevant quotes from the novel that connect to character development,	Quote #1		Page #

plot development or literary devices. (Include the page numbers.) Explain the connection.	Explanation:
	Quote # 2	Page #
	Explanation:
Change the title of this novel, what would you call it instead? Why?

Do you appreciate the way the story ends?

Explain.

What would make a better ending?

Summer Reading Response Chart (Non-Fiction)

Name _____

Title of Book _____

Author _____

Topic of Book _____

Directions: After reading the nonfiction book, fill in each box with the appropriate responses.

I. Vocabulary

List and define 10 new words you learned, or found greater appreciation for, by reading your Nonfiction book.

Word	Context Clue (quote of word usage from text)	Definition
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

II. Main Idea and Supporting Details

What is the book’s Main Idea?
Supporting Detail #1 (quote)	Supporting Detail #2 (quote)	Supporting Detail #3 (quote)

III. New Learning

What are the three key facts or concepts that you learned by reading your nonfiction book?

Key Facts/Concepts	Evidence from the Text (quote)

IV. Author’s Purpose

What was the author’s purpose in writing this nonfiction book? What two details from the book best convey this purpose?	Detail #1
	Detail #2

V. Summary

Write a paragraph in your own words that best summarizes the book you read:

VI. Claims and Evidence

What is your opinion of the book's topic ?	Evidence to support your opinion:
Why did you choose a book about this topic?	Evidence to support your opinion:
What are examples of opinions others might have of the book or topic?	Evidence to support your opinion: