

This link will be updated every Friday at 7pm to indicate if and when the observatory will be open.

Friday 17-10-2025 : If no decision has been made yet, Check Back at 7pm for any changes

Decision: (—) Clouds due

The observatory compound repairs/upgrades to the structure and equipment is now complete, just some ongoing minor tweaks and tuning; we are open as normal providing we have Clear Skies.
