Grant Awarded to Working Dogs For Vets by Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee, a nonprofit striving to build a more thriving and inclusive community — today and for generations to come — by transforming thoughtful generosity into positive change, announces $2,803,889 in grants to 438 nonprofit organizations as part of the 2023 annual grantmaking process.

Working Dogs For Vets has received a $5,266.00 grant from the Joni Werthan Fund to Erase the Stigma of Suicide The Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee.

“Good work happens every day in our community through the efforts of dedicated and talented staff and volunteers of nonprofit organizations, and we are happy to support that work,” says Laundrea Lewis, VP of Grants at CFMT.

Community Foundation awards discretionary grants annually from its unrestricted and field-of-interest funds through an open application process to Middle Tennessee nonprofit organizations addressing community needs and benefiting the well-being of citizens through valuable programs and innovative services.
