

Rvwàng Shànshér Kàru Bible App Privacy Policy

This App Privacy Policy is to help you understand what, if any, data may be collected as a result of you using the app and what may be done with that data.

What access to your device does the app require?

The app needs access to read/write to your device's storage (memory) space, including memory cards, e.g., SD card. This allows for a download of the audio reading of the Scriptures to be stored on the local device and played while the app is running. The user has the option to give permission for this to happen or not.

What information might be collected via the app?

This app collects the following types of non-personally identifiable information:

1. Type of device
2. Version of operating system
3. City/Country where connected to internet
4. Book(s) read

If analytics for the app are enabled and the device is connected to the internet, the app will connect from time to time to send usage information to a Google Analytics account. If the app does not connect to the internet, the analytic data will not be collected. This app does not collect any personally identifiable information (PII). PII is any information regarding a natural person, a legal person, an institution or an association, which is, or can be, identified, even indirectly, by reference to any other information, including a personal identification number.

How might your information be used?

Any of the information collected from you may be used to determine how many people use the app and where they are using it. It may also be used to improve our application and better support our users.

How is your personal information protected?

We take appropriate security measures to protect against unauthorized access to or unauthorized alteration, disclosure or destruction of data. This includes internal reviews of our data collection, storage and processing practices and security measures, and physical security measures to guard against unauthorized access to systems where we store data.

Will any information be disclosed to outside parties?

No. PII will never be sold, traded or otherwise transferred to an outside party. This does not include trusted third parties to assist us in operating our Scripture app store, conducting our business, or servicing you, so long as those parties agree to keep all information confidential.

Your consent

By using this app, you agree to the terms of our privacy policy.

Changes to the app's privacy policy

If we decide to change our app privacy policy, we will post those changes on this page and update the App Privacy Policy modification date below. This policy was last updated on August 31st 2020
