

The Strangoria Discord

A doc by Secret Gaygent 69

The Strangoria discord server is a place for various paranormal enthusiasts to discuss and/or argue with each about their favorite nonsense. The sections are based on some of the threads on the discord. Since this document is for a discord the only link is to the discord's website. I have also made an image version of the doc for ease of use that can be found below. Some of the names change between versions due to the time difference between when they were made.

Spirits

Jinn?

Skate_Engine — 11/28/2021

I saw something last night that i think was pretty interesting, I was sitting in my bed chilling to music, all my lights where off, so was my phone, i usually like to watch the stars outside before I sleep, Its usually really quiet, But then suddenly the room sorta lit up for a few seconds slightly, to like dark bleaker blue, like a cadet blue 1 type of blue, I turned my head to my left and I saw a face on my floor, It was like a baby face, but its eyes where closed and it just had a smile, It didn't show teeth and didn't look evil, My room got a quick breeze but the windows where closed and my door was shut, it was like nice and warm so it was a relaxing breeze, I than turned on my light besides me and it was gone along with the weird light. I'm not sure why but idk it was just an experience, I'm very sure it wasn't a cryptid too, I checked around my room and everything. The only weird thing that it really left was all like the things in my room that lost color became more vibrant, I have a mostly white amethyst but now its mostly purple, I had a black thing of obsidian but now its slightly darker green, My cloths are all complexly brighter or darker, It sorta just confused me, My mom even asked me what I did to some of my cloths, I said I'm not sure and we continued on with our day but it was def just confusing.

the light was bright enough for me to see its face but i couldnt see anything else, when i turned my head, like when i was facing away from it my whole room lit up, and than when i faced it, it quickly went away and i only saw the face

didnt harm me or anything but just made me confused

i didnt sense anything bad or good, the color change of everything is completly throwing me off tho

D.C. Hudson — 11/28/2021

sounds like a jinn!

Skate_Engine — 11/28/2021

im unfamiliar with this term, whats a jinn?

D.C. Hudson — 11/28/2021

an ancient race of interdimensional beings dating back to pre-islamic arabic culture. also known as genies

i suggest doing a quick google search on them

Gargoyles&GravelEnthusiast — 11/28/2021

If anything is offering you a wish

Make sure to involve a lawyer

Skate_Engine — 11/28/2021

hahaha ill try, like i havnt been doing much spiritual stuff this week except for teach people runes and work on my halloween ritual cuz it needs to be updated and my new project! witch involves music

but it didnt offer a wish it sorta just happend

Gargoyles&GravelEnthusiast — 11/28/2021

Sure, but do remember the wish lawyer and adding wordings of no strings attached, and to allow refunds.

Spoooooky photo!

NateBitGames — 07/26/2019

New to the server so thought I'd share a photo i took years ago and cant explain. Over the years I've explored several abandoned locations and into photography so snapped 1000s of photos and reviewed them all...usually was nothing out of the ordinary. Didnt notice this one until I sat down to look through the pics months later. Ran it through filters and compared it to other photos snapped that day and on different days same location but still cant think of any ordinary explanations. Was from the back lot of an abandoned home next to a very old church in Austin, TX during a full moon (unfortunately the house has been torn down since) ...I have more photos of the location for context if anyone is interested...also I was alone on this visit...no one else around

Source_o_ress — 07/26/2019

Instantly my eye saw what was in this photo and got a slight shiver.

If u turn the brightness up there's also an orb. I hope you don't mind my edit

NateBitGames — 07/26/2019

Wow...didnt notice that

Dont mind at all (edited)

Gave me the chills first time i saw it too...jaw dropped

Source_o_ress — 07/26/2019

And you didn't see it when you took it?? Like it showed in between frames/shoots kinda thing?

Source_o_ress — 07/27/2019

Something kinda serene about it the more I look at it

Polarbear — 07/27/2019

if you take the picture into photoshop the shadow man is actually the darkest point in the picture as well

Mold — 07/27/2019

the way the shadow man is centered looks straight out of a horror film... creepy

Source_o_ress — 07/27/2019

Does anyone see it as a shafow... horse?? Look at the legs

Shadow

Mold — 07/27/2019

a horse viewed from the front?

Source_o_ress — 07/27/2019

Yes to the front view, and i was just throwing a different perspective out there, different way to kinda see it. I rarely consider animal ghost, it always seems to be human forms so I finally saw an animal from so I figured I'd state it, to see if anyone else could possibly open there minds to so a thing less thought of

Taita — 07/27/2019

Big orb to the right top of shadow.

Thats a banished anshar. Something of interest on that property either gold or technology. ashara use dark orbs to travel.

Or it could be a person in jeans with a hoodie pulled over facing away.

Taita — 07/27/2019

There are about 3 angelic natured beings, 1 dark shadow guy, tons of orbs and I have about 5 bored people that I know / knew that just hang around. I was in the room when they passed physically.

The dark shadow guy said his name was Numeri a bit of a latin speaker. @Polarbear (edited)

Possum — 07/27/2019

@Taita the figure didn't show up in other pics taken at the same time, He was doing burst photography so there were pictures of the same thing a millisecond off and it only shows up in that one @spookydáithí when i was a teenager i saw a small white dog on fire, going nuts, for a second or two, in the middle of an uninhabited forest. Only animal spirit i've seen, if it was. I looked at it dead on before it was gone.

Source_o_ress — 07/27/2019

Do you think living animals can astral project? I live in this old apartment building, which im sure in time ill share stories of. but there never was animals on this floor until my newer neighbor moved in. Sometimes i sense the cat from the new neighbors apartment in mine.

Also for awhile after meeting someone whos dog past and he had very strong emotional bond with the dog and its death, seem to attact to my energy feild. I always felt like this dog was protecting me from him due to these strong uncontrollable emotions the person had

July 28, 2019

luckyleeify — 07/28/2019

it's is a possibility

Taita — 07/28/2019

Dogs have a 1mm pineal gland so they can access the astral.

humans at 8 mm.

The pineal body / gland is absent in crocodiles and in mammals of the order Edentata (anteaters, sloths, armadillos) and consists of only a few cells in whales and elephants.

Cats have a larger pineal gland so they can actually speak to you through the astral as well as access the astral.

Source_o_ress — 07/28/2019

This cat I thought a few times was seeing through my eyes, how weird is that?! Thanks for the New information, I didn't know any of that!

Cryptids

Fungus Among us?

Gargoyles&GravelEnthusiast — 11/24/2021

This probably nothing new, but ever heard about these creatures that mimic humans?

These stories in the forest about these entities, I dont know exactly why but I for some reason think that they might be actually some sort of plants maybe fungi.

Would it be impossible? That some plant has adapted a new predatorial behavior that involved mimicry to lure prey in this manner?

Fidgety Aura (Ms. Hobbit) — 11/24/2021

@Gargoyles&GravelEnthusiast I've wondered the same thing. Some types of fungi are miles wide and we really don't understand the true nature of consciousness. A lot of the things people see or when people think they hear familiar voices calling them, could all be some kind of tulpa created by a sentient being in a form no one would ever suspect.

There was just a PBS show about the intelligence of slime molds

Nova I think or maybe Nature

Nova! IDK if it's free to watch, some episodes are.

Wendigo

Spooks — 08/03/2021

The past 2 nights me and my boyfriend saw a wendigo and then a not deer last night

Also got evil energy from a game reserve

Voorzel — 08/04/2021

is the land in that area known for having sightings like this?

Spooks — 08/04/2021

Kinda the road we saw the windy boy at is called wend... road and a little bit of time back our friend got kinda surrounded by 3 of them and the other night my friend saw a skin standing out by the woods

Mr. Welldone — 08/04/2021

I always ask when folks see a thing how they qualify what they saw. Classic concept of a pile of clothes looking like a murderer with a knife in the dark.

@Spooks what did what you saw look like?

Spooks 2 — 08/04/2021

Hi wrong person but hi

This is a different user named spooks. I added the 2 to their posts for conveniences sake.

Spooks — 08/04/2021

Well the wend was going back into its persay realm cause we saw it in spectral all I saw was 2 long lanky deer legs but there wasn't anything there

Mr. Welldone — 08/04/2021

Trying to invigorate my brain with interesting concepts.

You 'saw it in spectral'?

What does that mean?

Spooks — 08/04/2021

Kinda like spirits are spectral

We just happened to catch it right before it disappeared

Mr. Welldone — 08/04/2021

Spectral means 'of the nature of a spectre' or ghost-like'.

Spooks — 08/04/2021

Exactly

Mr. Welldone — 08/04/2021

So, how do you see 'in spectral'.

Spooks — 08/04/2021

I just mean we saw it in its spectral form

Mr. Welldone — 08/04/2021

So you've seen other 'forms'?

Spooks — 08/04/2021

Kinda yes

This wasn't my first sighting

Mr. Welldone — 08/04/2021

Please do tell.

Spooks — 08/04/2021

I was in the woods down the road from my house and it was mid afternoon and I was just chilling and walking the trails and at one point I got really uneasy and then in the distance I could see it's large dark silhouette and turned around and started walking back to my car and could hear branches breaking and it calling out my name trying to get me to turn around

Mr. Welldone — 08/04/2021

That's chilling.

Spooks — 08/04/2021

Ya

Mr. Welldone — 08/04/2021

Sorry for the questions, in this sort of stuff folks tend to create or borrow bizarre lexicons.

Spooks — 08/04/2021

Oh I know trust me

Mr. Welldone — 08/04/2021

Also, there is the notion of 'if you have a hammer everything looks like a nail'. Folks who want to see a ghost will see what they want in everything. That creaky door? Ghost. A cold breeze? Ghost. In reality, a little oil and the AC kicking on explain everything.

Having your name called out is a bit of a hard one to discount, unless you have patient and wily friends.

Spooks — 08/04/2021

At that time no

It was 100% it

Mr. Welldone — 08/04/2021

I get you.

Many folks don't understand what true skepticism is. It isn't merely disbelieving, it's acknowledging that anything ranging from likely to highly unlikely but possible series of perfectly explicable events may account for the experience.

The key is when you have an uncanny event that makes explaining it all together become a tangled thread of an almost impossible sequence of events. (edited)

There we go.

Experiences

Binaural Beats

Eggroll — 11/19/2021

I had a paranormal experience: So basically my house was active for awhile because I messed with something called Binaural beats with one of my friends. Pretty much forces you into sleep paralysis due to the different levels of sound frequencies being projected. The binaural beat was called Gates of Hades and was meant for Satan worshipers. We were dumb and decided to try it. Bad idea to say the least. The aftermath of it was footsteps so audible that my parents thought it was me, so I would get in trouble for staying up late on school nights, even though I was in bed by 10... One weekend night I was playing with my buddy and was having a good time. While we were playing there was a bang really loud in my house, so loud my friends heard it through my microphone. I thought maybe it was the fridge so I carried on in till the end of the night. Right before I got off my game I looked in the kitchen and I noticed that one of the draws in the kitchen was pulled so far out that it was barely hanging off the hinges. That same friend slept over one night and we were upstairs when we heard a loud bang. This time we were wise enough to check the kitchen since previous experiences. Sure enough one of my drawers was pulled out so far it was barely on the hinges. I brought it up to my parents and they said they were having weird things happening but they thought it was me. I decided to buy sage and I ended up sagging the whole house, ever since then there has been no drawers pulled out, but the footsteps haven't stopped.

GF

『 Xenkos 』 — 11/19/2021

The Bus Ride

Xpguy — 11/04/2021

hey this happend a few days ago so every day i go to high school by bus but this was very strange so the route everyday stays the same even though little kids that go to elementary school (or just regular school or primary) get on the bus high school students get off first. so this day everything was normal the kids got on the bus,etc i was a bit tired but i took a nap... but then i woke up and noticed this woman who greeted the kids at the elementary school (i used to go on another bus which took the little kids first and then the highschool students like me) so that was weird i recall the bus driver saying oh i see you took a nap huh.. i dont know what happened next but then i fell a sleep again then i woke up at my high school (i prob took a nap for a few minutes the high school is not that far from the other one) so i woke up and no one was in the bus but the bus driver no one seated so i got down went to my class room and i do know a kid who rides the same bus as me and is in same classes . and he was there in my class weird

Astral Fighter

hytension — 05/08/2021

Some kid in college once tried to like, idk, fight me in the astral realm?

It was like that anime Jojo, it almost felt like he wanted to fight me with his astral form?

campanulaparrot — 05/08/2021

I fucked a sex demon in my dream

hytension — 05/08/2021

Those things suck the soul out of you.

It's not even your soul that's the worrying part. It's your energy, they take that shit. Most people don't believe in that stuff but they 100% drain you.

And what do you get in return? A dick in the ass. Maybe a pegging if you're lucky.

campanulaparrot — 05/08/2021

Yeah I had another dream where a demoness or goddess was sucking the life force out of my blood

hytension — 05/08/2021

I also have dreams of these Mexican guys that follow the sun god or something.

They apparently work under him to stop the end of the world. They said a succubus is draining my force through my penis. I'm not sure how to stop it, or if they can stop it. It seems their realm is in computers/technology.

hytension — 05/08/2021

For keeping the hierarchy of gods/goddesses pure, let's say it was a demoness. The only "deity" that would do such a thing would be a djinn. And lot's of those are known to be evil.

campanulaparrot — 05/08/2021

I was thinking lillith

@hytension

hytension — 05/08/2021

Many woman take up the mantle Lilith.

Or uh title, whatever.

hytension — 05/08/2021

I wasn't being hostile. You need to label your demons. If you just call them all "Lilith" you'll live in a black and white world where nothing matters.

campanulaparrot — 05/08/2021

I was specifically talking about Lilith tho

hytension — 05/08/2021

I don't think there is a "Lilith".

campanulaparrot — 05/08/2021

There is....actually....

hytension — 05/08/2021

I believe you.

How does one combat this "Lilith"?

campanulaparrot — 05/08/2021

You don't combat her lol you can revere her and worship her. She's the great Dark Goddess. The serpent in Paradise.

The book of Lilith is a great starting point

TheGodsOfOlympus — 05/08/2021

actually there is. succubus. if spelled that right.

May 9, 2021

campanulaparrot — 05/09/2021

Yes. There are supposed succubus' but lillith isn't one of them. She's more of a baby killer than anything.

TheGodsOfOlympus — 05/09/2021

baby killer? i thought she was one of those types? oh this demon is something else.

Ghost App

Deleted User — 05/11/2021

Yesterday me and my friends were like playing with random ghost apps as a joke but somethings are like really close from what happens so we taught lets set up a candle to make things happy you know but that light was like flashing idk but there was no wind in there so were like talking to it and we talked for like 2 hours? With a cat named snoetje she's really sweet and she was the hole time laying on me so sweet tho but then her energie was really low so a dog

ET contact

Deleted User — 02/14/2021

The picture that was originally posted contained the address and phone number of the user.

If you are in contact with ET, tell them that governments are conspiring behind the scenes to start a WAR against aliens

And that they think that aliens are demons/fallen angels (from the Bible)

[REDACTED] — 02/14/2021

I think they already have made wars against other alien species. (edited)

It's just they keep it a secret.

And I bet the US government already has space combat suits and the whole nine yards for this type of stuff.

@Deleted User

And that they think that aliens are demons/fallen angels (from the Bible)

[REDACTED] — 02/14/2021

That's incorrect.

Demons are actually VERY real entities.

My question is though, demons travel to our plain of existence by getting summoned, but summoning is basically opening a portal to hell, right?

And, It is said alien ships can travel to different dimensions, right? So from that, my question is, are their ways of travelling related? (edited)

@[REDACTED]

Demons are actually VERY real entities.

MKCST — 02/14/2021

that's right they so real that they can cost damage to the living

@[REDACTED]

My question is though, demons travel to our plain of existence by getting summoned, but summoning is basically opening a portal to hell, right?

MKCST — 02/14/2021

they go to our world by portals and rituals some can appear out of nowhere

@[REDACTED]

And, It is said alien ships can travel to different dimensions, right? So from that, my question is, are their ways of travelling related? (edited)

MKCST — 02/14/2021

i don't believe in aliens but i do believe that Aliens are other Humanoid creatures from other planets and they somehow achieved time travel,interdemensional travel,Technological superiority and many more like other creatures they like to explore other creatures and experiment on them my other theory is that Aliens don't exist and that they are rather humans from the future going back too conduct experiments in the past i think that may explain why there were many humanoid creature sightings around the world rather then other alien types they coul just be allready be hiding among us aren't they ?

CLO — 02/14/2021

So you do believe in aliens, then.

MKCST — 02/15/2021

no i don't i believe that aliens are humans from the future although i have theories that aliens achived time travel and technological superiority so it may be true that they may be Humans from the future
