

Internship Description

Work Site Name	Department/Position
Green Corps	Organizing Intern

Brief Overview of Internship
• Green Corps is looking for motivated students to support Colorado's Clean Energy Campaign • Colorado is experiencing rising temperatures, wildfires and poor air quality linked to climate change caused by greenhouse gas emissions from fossil fuels • The Colorado Clean Energy Campaign wants Colorado to realign its energy system so our state is powered by more clean energy • Interns and volunteers will help us to build grassroots power and educate the public on this issue; work with volunteers and local organizations; and participate in environmental advocacy with local elected officials
Internship Tasks/Projects
Interns and volunteers will help us to build grassroots power and educate the public on the need for a clean energy transition; work with volunteers and local organizations; and participate in environmental advocacy with local elected officials. Tasks and projects will include the following - Coordinating educational events on renewable energy (ie.. solar & wind) - Coordinating educational events on climate change - Participating in events gathering petitions calling on legislatures to implement clean energy policy - Attending lobby days where interns will speak directly with state legislatures
Internship Learning Goals (new skills/knowledge the intern will acquire)
• Interns leave with a better understanding of the political process • Interns will gain an of clean energy projects and the barriers they face • Interns will have an understanding of how to coordinate a grassroots advocacy campaign • Interns will hone their public speaking and written communication skills • Interns will develop skills in event planning and execution

Internship Site Address and Primary Contact Information	Internship Hours Start/End Times
- Calvin Levy - 414-530-2103 - clevy@greencorps.org	Hours will vary but there is an expectation of 6 hours spent per week. Interns will be expected to attend some meetings and important events in the evening and on the weekend.
Physical requirements	Dress Code
• Ability to walk/stand up to 2 hours at a time • Ability to sit and type for up to 2 hours at a time	• Casual; for certain events and meetings business casual attire will be required
Occupational/Educational Requirements (skills, certifications needed)	Age/Grade Level of Intern
• Good written and oral communication skills and a passion for the environment	• Juniors and Seniors

