

Hello, wonderful Washington Families!

***Keep this list and use it all summer. There are reading suggestions for great books, and instructions to access Sora and Tales2Go. Berkeley Public Library's summer plans are linked, and even the library webpage has undiscovered treasures.

Summer Reading is almost here!

As the school year ends, we want to pass on these resources to help you keep reading over the Summer, and dive into new books. Here are some ways you can keep reading!

BUSD Grade Level Summer Reading Suggestions

Click HERE to find recommended ebooks and audiobooks by grade level (TK-5th Grade), all available on Sora or Tales2Go. Each reading list contains amazing book recommendations as well as login instructions for both Sora and Tales2Go.

Berkeley School Library Website

Your virtual school library website is open all Summer! Click HERE to select your school. You will find:

- The library catalog, where you can use your @students.berkeley.net account to checkout audio and ebooks.
- Information about using Sora and Tales2Go - both free resources with access to thousands and thousands of books.
- More Reading Suggestions to connect you with stories including: TumbleBook Library, Storyline Online, Unite for Literacy...and more!

Berkeley Public Library

The public library will begin their Summer Reading Program on June 15. Here is the Summer Reading Gameboard to get started. See the linked letter below, and check their website for updates and more information!
