The vegetarian and vegan choices are great and flavorful. Such unique taco alternatives, the have pulled pork, Korean BBQ, shrimp Po boy, and so many others. The flavors had been good, nothing bland at all on my plate. I'm really surprised on the low star score of this place. I nearly skipped it trigger the were beneath 4.5 stars.

The gumbo was so hearty and the addition of Okra was an excellent alternative. Loved all of the vegetable sides we obtained as properly, and when you're wanting to try fried green tomatoes that is the place. The batter on them was crisp and well seasoned and by no means heavy or overbearing. The workers are friendly and welcoming, and the young girl who served us was glorious.
