

Maj Paul A. Lem

Location - East-AF: R31, C1

PAUL
ABRAHAM
LEM
MAJ
US AIR FORCE
WORLD WAR II
KOREA
APR 2 1920
DEC 25 2006

LIEUTENANT LEM IS RECALLED INTO SERVICE

Second Lt. Paul A. Lem, a former Oshkosh resident and son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lem, 114 Jefferson avenue, has been recalled to active service in the air force.

Lieutenant Lem, a teacher at Sheboygan Central High school, is to report for duty to Chanute Field, Ill., Wednesday, Aug. 9.

He is presently attending summer school at Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill., where he was scheduled to receive his master of science degree in three weeks.

Weather Cadet Paul A. Lem, 114 Jefferson avenue, is one of 46 weather cadets in the army air forces technical training command detachment enrolled in the University of Chicago's institute of meteorology who will be commissioned second lieutenants and awarded certificates of competence in meteorology at a special graduation of the institute June 12.