Teaching Resources
LGBTQ+ curriculum materials for LINC classes Allyship	These materials are being developed by Rowan and Kate of ISANS in Nova Scotia; they are available on Tutela. Their recorded webinar, Trans Canada: Making LGBTQ+ resources accessible to clients and instructors is also available on Tutela. Note that Tutela is a repository for the #ELT community in Canada. Membership is required to access materials.
Tyson Seburn's Class Expectations	This is a statement of class expectations that Tyson uses at the beginning of his classes to outline expectations, acknowledge differences, name what's not tolerated, and say what to do if problems arise.
Integrating Queer Voices into the Curriculum	This resource is from Teaching Tolerance, Section III: Instruction, listed below under Websites. Tyson particularly recommends this section as a good overview and starting point.
