

Hello! ~~Why are you reading this?~~ Lmao just kidding~

[ALL OF THIS IS OUTDATED - CURRENTLY IN THE PROCESS OF UPDATING IT]

These are all my characters, in chronological order of acceptance into the clans!

~The colors are the clans~

Active Characters:

Shockkit-She/Her/Hers-Relations: Sparkkit, brother, Age: 4 moons

Shockkit is a sleek yellow tabby she cat with a long black stripe along the top of her back (going from right behind her neck to right in front of her tail). She is pretty skinny. Shockkit has a short temper and her fiery attitude backfires on her several times, so it is great to have her brother watching over her. She is very energetic and loves to play. She most especially likes climbing and hunting. Her best friend is Plumkit @Tecumori, and she always gets down to no good when she is with him.

Sparkkit-He/Him/His-Relations: Shockkit, sister, Age: 4 moons

Sparkkit is a light brown tabby tom who -bear with me, this is complicated- has a yellow stripe that goes from the place where his rear end meets the beginning of his tail and runs along the top of it to his tail tip, and his tail tip is entirely yellow. Sparkkit is best friends with Lilackit @Theodore_510. He will have special feelings for her later on, during apprenticeship. He always looks out for his sister, and has friendly tussles and taunts with her. He is the opposite of his sister-calm, but lazy. All he wants to do is lie around all day. He has ice-blue eyes.

Swampstream-He/Him/His-Relations: None, Age: 132 moons

Swampstream is a burly brown tom with matted fur and disheveled whiskers. He is an elder, and has had the average experience during his warrior days. He was not too special, but he was in his fair share of battles. He tends to his den-mates and looks out for them, trying to cheer them all up constantly, no matter how sad he was feeling. He is pretty friendly so his den mates only think positive things about him.

Sleekfur-He/Him/His-Relations: None, Age: 40 moons

Sleekfur is a -literally- sleek warrior, and he is male. He has black leopard-like spots along his pelt that stop by his rump. He himself is blue-gray, and his spots are light black. Sleekfur has no relations so far, whether it be my characters, or anyone's. He is loyal to his clan and a pretty good fighter. He does not speak too loudly, but does not keep to himself either. He likes fighting, but is not the best at it. That does not mean he is bad, though.

Airkit-He/Him/His-Relations: Blossomkit, sister, Age: 2 moons

Airkit is a small, scrawny light gray tom with dark-gray zebra-like stripes along his flanks. He also has gray eyes that always have a mischievous twinkle in them. He is the smallest of my characters. He is a very energetic little floofball, and is always down to play a game. His sister is stronger and faster than him, but he doesn't let that stop his optimistic attitude. He will always be there for his older (by a minute) sister no matter what. Friends are temporary, family is forever.

Blossomkit-She/Her/Hers-Relations: Airkit, brother, Age: 2 moons

Blossomkit may have a name named after a pretty flower-but she is one ferocious little kit. She is a gray she cat with white stripes and emerald green eyes. Some may call her beautiful, but she is also very athletic. She is big and strong, larger than the average kit (toms included). She is very fast, and hates losing. And when she can get mad, she can beat up cats bigger and stronger than her because her rage empowers her. Even when she acts like this, Airkit still supports her, being the loving and encouraging brother that he is.

Ripplekit-She/Her/Hers-Relation: None, Age: 1.5 moons

Ripplekit is the cool kid in the nursery-strutting around like she owns the place, when in reality, she isn't. This may be mostly because she has no friends. She currently does not have any friends because she is scared to make them-scared of rejection, of humiliation, of losing her status. She is a light blue-gray tabby she cat with darker colored stripes along her sides. She also has dark blue eyes. While she has no friends yet-there is hope. She is currently meeting a soon-to-be-bestie in Badgerkit (@Theodore_510).

Hiddenkit-She/Her/Hers-Relations: None, Age: 4 moons

Hiddenkit is the youngest of my characters. She is a skinny black kit with copper eyes and tufty fur. She is a mischievous one-she loves to do pranks, and she is always good fun. However, she only does this with cats she is close to- to others, she doesn't speak at all, (shes emo) and she stays in the shadows. (i will probs buy shadow fiend later on) She has two older brothers (Bluepaw + Yellowpaw) and a mean mom.

Flameflicker-He/Him/His, Relations: none, Age: 19 moons

Flameflicker is a young broad-shouldered warrior who is energetic and smart. He is better at hunting than he is at fighting. He is an orange-yellow pelted Tom with amber eyes and a black tail. His pelt flickers like a flame in the sunlight (totally did not copy firestar there). He is a brave warrior and would die for his clan. He seems like he is such a great guy right? Well that's exactly how he wants you to see him as, and that's how he portrays himself, when in reality he always doubts himself and worries that he doesn't do enough. The fact that he has no good friends in the clan is not helping matters either. He also likes teaching.

Newtberry-He/Him/His, Relations: None Age: 34 moons

Newtberry is a WindClan tom who is lazy and keeps to himself. He dislikes contact and touching other people, but does not hesitate to do it when he has to. He cares for each of his clanmates like a brother. He will die for his clan before letting it fall apart. He is a silver-gray tom with sharp claws and swirly stripes around his eyes. He has a soft spot for little kits and apprentices, and he has one now. Her name is Birdpaw. He is best at searching, for example finding herbs or prey or lost items. He has a son named Cloudykit. His mother died.

Meadowkit-She/Her/Hers, Relations: Mistfire, mother, Featherkit, sibling, Fogkit, sibling, Age: 4 moons

Meadowkit is a puffball with seemingly unlimited energy. She spends most of her energy through games that usually end up in her getting in a little bit of trouble. She is not only mischievous, but fun! She loved playing games with friends, and is the opposite of shy! She is extremely comfortable with talking to new cats, and is great at making friends! She is a pale brown tabby she-cat with light green eyes that constantly seem to have a twinkle in them.

Gentlebloom-She/Her/Hers, Relations: soon-to-be-litter Age: 19 moons.

She is a white short-furred cat with black splotches of fur. She has one on her left eye. Her eyes are emerald green. She is a kind, sweet cat who has a smooth, silky voice. She is friends with almost everyone because of how she is. Her tail tip is white, but the length of it is black. She is pretty plump for a shadow clan cat, but she is beautiful. She is not very athletic, but is still a reasonable fighter who is loyal to her clan. However, if she ever has a choice, she would rather look after kits instead of fighting other warriors.

Cats Being Created: (both have been created but I haven't done their bios yet)

Hawkgrowl

Softpaw

DECEASED:

Morningsight

Flameflicker
