

Tìm từ đồng nghĩa bài số 5

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Boys' Clubs do not deprive poor children of the opportunity to participate in sports.A. deny                      B. retractC. improvise              D. dilute                                                                                          | 2. The cake was heavenly so I asked for more.A. out-of-this-world    B. edibleC. extra light            D. beautiful                                                                                       |
| 3. One must live in the United States five years in order to apply for citizenship.A. reside in              B. accommodate toC. invade                D. abandon                                                                                           | 4. Several members of the royal family have been held prisoner in the Tower of London.A. for protection        B. by requestC. captive                D. briefly                                           |
| 5. In some cases of lapse of memory the loss may be limited to a single incident, whereas in other cases it may be so inclusive as to involve everything about an individual's life.A. paralysis              B. aphasiaC. deafness              D. amnesia | 6. Eyeglasses have been in use since about 1300.A. Spectacles            B. GobletsC. Binoculars            D. Telescopes                                                                                  |
| 7. Many politicians find that they can no longer afford the luxury of a personal chauffeur .A. valet                  B. driverC. secretary              D. servant                                                                                         | 8. Attitudes on the two sides in the Revolutionary War precluded the possibility of a peaceful solution.A. presaged              B. prejudicedC. anticipated            D. prevented                       |
| 9. They had conclusive evidence that he had been defrauding his customers.A. decisive              B. swindlingC. unclear                D. superficial                                                                                                     | 10. Psychologists have recently mounted an offensive against what they describe as nastiness toward students by educators.A. arbitrariness        B. unpleasantnessC. severity                D. aloofness |
| 11. A female mosquito produces between 100 and 300 eggs at a time and up to 3,000 eggs during her lifetime.A. at once                B. one by oneC. once in a while        D. off and on                                                                   | 12. The tornado caused irreparable damage to the Florida citrus crop.A. irresolute              B. irresponsibleC. irrecoverable        D. irregular                                                       |
| 13. Numbing terror filled their brains as they witnessed the explosions.A. torpid                B. tantalizingC. paralyzing            D. sentient                                                                                                         | 14. The high mountain climate is cold and inhospitable .A. rainy                  B. stormyC. uninviting            D. intense                                                                             |
| 15. After World War II, Russia emerged as a world power.A. surrendered            B. came forthC. fought                D. dismissed                                                                                                                        | 16. After leaving a particularly raucous concert, some rock music fans complain about ringing in their ears known as tinnitus.A. crowded              B. loudC. unpleasant            D. lively            |
| 17. Saint Elmo's Fire is a Phenomenon that occurs when ships discharging harmless electrical charges into the atmosphere appear to shine .A. fade                  B. shrinkC. glow                  D. vanish                                              | 18. The wagonmaster decided to ford the stream .A. valley                B. mountainC. small river            D. plain                                                                                     |
| 19. The ostrich egg is the largest egg of any non-extinct bird, while the smallest egg is the egg of the hummingbird.A. living                B. deadC. flying                D. vanished                                                                   | 20. A number of animals in Aesop's fables are portrayed as being crafty .A. vain                    B. virtuousC. artistic                D. cunning                                                       |

TESTING ON SYNONYMS TEST 5

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Boys' Clubs do not deprive poor children of the opportunity to participate in sports. A. deny                      B. retract C. improvise                D. dilute                                                                                            | 2. The cake was heavenly so I asked for more. A. out-of-this-world    B. edible C. extra light            D. beautiful                                                                                      |
| 3. One must live in the United States five years in order to apply for citizenship. A. reside in                B. accommodate to C. invade                    D. abandon                                                                                         | 4. Several members of the royal family have been held prisoner in the Tower of London. A. for protection        B. by request C. captive                D. briefly                                                 |
| 5. In some cases of lapse of memory the loss may be limited to a single incident, whereas in other cases it may be so inclusive as to involve everything about an individual's life. A. paralysis                B. aphasia C. deafness                D. amnesia | 6. Eyeglasses have been in use since about 1300. A. Spectacles            B. Goblets C. Binoculars            D. Telescopes                                                                                        |
| 7. Many politicians find that they can no longer afford the luxury of a personal chauffeur. A. valet                    B. driver C. secretary                D. servant                                                                                          | 8. Attitudes on the two sides in the Revolutionary War precluded the possibility of a peaceful solution. A. presaged                B. prejudiced C. anticipated              D. prevented                         |
| 9. They had conclusive evidence that he had been defrauding his customers. A. decisive                B. swindling C. unclear                  D. superficial                                                                                                     | 10. Psychologists have recently mounted an offensive against what they describe as nastiness toward students by educators. A. arbitrariness            B. unpleasantness C. severity                  D. aloofness |
| 11. A female mosquito produces between 100 and 300 eggs at a time and up to 3,000 eggs during her lifetime. A. at once                B. one by one C. once in a while        D. off and on                                                                       | 12. The tornado caused irreparable damage to the Florida citrus crop. A. irresolute                B. irresponsible C. irrecoverable        D. irregular                                                           |
| 13. Numbing terror filled their brains as they witnessed the explosions. A. torpid                    B. tantalizing C. paralyzing            D. sentient                                                                                                         | 14. The high mountain climate is cold and inhospitable. A. rainy                    B. stormy C. uninviting            D. intense                                                                                  |
| 15. After World War II, Russia emerged as a world power. A. surrendered              B. came forth C. fought                    D. dismissed                                                                                                                      | 16. After leaving a particularly raucous concert, some rock music fans complain about ringing in their ears known as tinnitus. A. crowded                B. loud C. unpleasant              D. lively              |
| 17. Saint Elmo's Fire is a Phenomenon that occurs when ships discharging harmless electrical charges into the atmosphere appear to shine. A. fade                      B. shrink C. glow                    D. vanish                                             | 18. The wagonmaster decided to ford the stream. A. valley                    B. mountain C. small river            D. plain                                                                                        |
| 19. The ostrich egg is the largest egg of any non-extinct bird, while the smallest egg is the egg of the hummingbird. A. living                    B. dead C. flying                D. vanished                                                            | 20. A number of animals in Aesop's fables are portrayed as being crafty. A. vain                      B. virtuous C. artistic                  D. cunning                                                          |