[Indoor Castle: Dark/Cold Ambience]

<Foosteps walking quickly on stone>

<Faint shush>

<Soft running, scuffling>

Psst… Over here.

<Torch flickering>

There's a guard over there, hold your ground.

<Faint footsteps>

It's clear.

Come… Follow me out back.

<Scuffling>

Hurry! This way…

(Giggles)

Shhh, be quiet.

[Outdoor Garden: Night Ambience]

In the bush, quickly!

And… put out the torch!

(Exhausted)

<Torch extinguishes>

We made it before any guards noticed.

(Giggles)

Do you think It's clear now?

What if someone saw us leaving?

<Clothes rustling>

(Moans)

Please, we... we have to be on guard, dear.

The castle has too many eyes...

Wait... No... Please, darling—

<Clothes rustling>

(Heavy breaths and kissing)

Someone might—catch us (moans).. in... the garden..

This... bush isn't that great of a hideout. They might hear us...

(Whimper)

No, please darling…

I—I can't say no when your hands are all over me like that.

(Moan)

Oh, you know I can't fight it… Come here!

(Gives in to kisses)

Oh, my dear… How I've longed for your sweet lips.

And to feel your strong hands wrapped around my waist…

There is nothing better in this world than being embraced by you…

Oh, kiss me! Please!

(Kisses)

No! Don't—don't touch my breast, please…

(Giggles)

I can't help but moan when you touch me there.

Darling, please…

(Moans)

Shh… We—we can't be loud.

(Soft Moan)

Oh, but… How can I not whimper when you have me wrapped up in your arms?

(Moan)

There is nothing I want more.

(Kisses passionately and moans)

You know… I think about you day and night.

There isn't a second when you don't cross my mind.

Even when I'm with that miserable prince, the only person that comes to my mind is you.

In fact… He asked me a question the other day and I blanked out.

I hadn't heard a single word he said.

All I could think about was your sweet smile…

But then reality came fourth. I had to remind myself that the man I'm marrying isn't you.

(Annoyed)

Oh! It's awful, isn't it?

That dreadful marriage is going to seal my fate whether I want it or not.

And for what? So my father can gain more land and alliances for the war.

Ugh! Why doesn't anyone ever bother to ask me what I want?

Nobody cares about me…

(Sigh)

Well, of course YOU care! That's because…

You.. You love me? Right?

Tell me you do. Please…

I… I want to hear it from you in case we might not ever see each other again.

(Pauses)

Oh? You… really do?

Well… I—I love you too!

And I always have. Ever since we first met.

You're so sweet and you've always treated me kindly unlike anyone else.

But… as long as I'm princess, I will never have a choice in life.

My path was already set in stone the day I was born.

(Sigh)

I wish we could just run away together!

Just you and I.

(Happily engaged in dream-like trance)

We could live peacefully in a little house by the river…

With just the sound of nature at our back.

We could plant all sorts of vegetables and tend to the livestock…

A simple life together.

(Chuckles happily)

We could even… start a family together?

(Pauses)

And then… we'd grow old together after living out our days.

Your hand in mine, intertwined until our dying breath.

I would be happy to share that life with you…

(Realizes it's just a fantasy)

Oh, but… that will never come true, will it?

There won't ever be a chance for that.

(Sighs)

No. Not for us.

We're doomed to live out our fate in this pitiful existence, never knowing if we'll ever be able to see each other again…

You'll stay as a Knight in my father's keep, and I'll be sent off to some far off land to marry a repulsive prince who would care less if I was locked up forever!

Soon, I'll be just as withered as dried ink on paper…

(Sigh)

(Shuffling, turning to listener)

Dear?

Would you—Would you promise me?…

That no matter what happens or… how far apart we end up being…

You'll always think of me the same way I think of you?

(Pause for reply)

It matters to me because…

It's your enduring love that keeps me going.

Without that… I'm nothing.

(Pause for reply)

I just want us to think of each other and always remember our love.

(Pause for reply)

(Slight gasp)

You.. would think of me everyday?

Well… I'll always be your little princess, no matter what.

And of course it would be hard for me not to remember you…

I let you take my innocence after all.

(Giggles)

You will always be my first at everything…

My first real friend.

First partner in crime, helping me sneak out of the castle (giggle)

You're the first boy to ever make my heart skip a beat…

And now, you've also become my first true love…

You're the only man who's ever been this close to me.

In a way… it's like you've already claimed me.

My heart and body belong to you.

(Kisses)

In fact, you own every part of me.

And perhaps as a parting gift, you'd consider gifting me your most precious asset…

(Giggle)

No, you're such a jokester. I don't need your knightly protection.

I was thinking more… The gift that comes from within you. That only you can give me.

Something that will stay deep inside me.

(Pause for reply)

No, not that either.

I don't want to hear another one of your lame tavern jokes.

Darling, are you really that oblivious or are you just toying with me?

(Slightly annoyed)

How about I show you what I mean? Maybe then you'll understand?

But first… Let's loosen your tunic.

<Rustling clothes>

Now, do you feel my hands on your tummy?

They’re soft, aren’t they?

Feel them glide around gently as I make my way down your body…

Mmm, let me taste those sweet lips of yours again… I want to never forget.

(Kissing)

Oh, what’s this?

I feel something… hard and pointy.

(Giggles)

What a naughty knight. Seems like you’ve already gotten the idea.

Woah!

<Pushed down onto ground below>

(Moaning)

Oh, you really are naughty.

Now you’ve got me pinned beneath.

Go on then, take me… Please!

Take my body and make it yours.

(Making out)

<Clothes ripping>

Oh darling, you’ve ripped apart the top of my gown and now…

My—my breasts are exposed as I lay beneath you!

Are you going to… Oh.. (moans)

Yes! Yes, my love. Please!!

Touch them and squeeze them in your hands!

(Moans)

You want to taste them one last time, don't you?

(Giggles)

Yes please, go ahead and taste them.

Wrap your mouth around my tit, please!

(Moans)

Mmmm, how is that dear?

You love to suck on my tits, don't you?

(Giggles)

I know you do, I can feel you throbbing on top.

Just imagine how round and plump they'll be if I ever get pregnant!

Full of milk, ready to burst…

(Moans)

Oh, sweetheart! Your cock just won't stop throbbing now!

(Giggles)

I.. I want to feel you inside me now.

Please, darling…

Can you fill me up one last time so I can always keep a part of you with me?

You won't have to worry about a thing.

If you breed me, I'll raise our child as the next heir.

That silly prince won't know a thing! I promise you…

Please? This is all I ask of you before our final farewell.

Breed this sweet little princess with your seed…

Give to me your eternal love…

(Giggles)

Yes! Thank you, my love.

It would bring me joy if you did me this honor.

I just love you so much… And I'll never forget this.

<Clothes rustling>

But we better hurry though before the guards return!

(Giggles)

You lift up my gown and quickly get yourself into position on top, spreading my legs apart and revealing my precious little hole beneath. You take a quick glance over the shrubs to make sure no guards are nearby before spitting on your cock and gently placing it over my clit…

<Clothes rustling>

I.. I can't see what you're doing but… yes, right there. I can feel it…

Right on my— (GASP)

(Moans)

Yes! Rub it right there please.

Oh my god, that feels good. Yes, sweetheart!

You rub the head of your cock on my wet clit as our throbbing intensifies.

We can feel the sensation together.

(Moans)

<Wet squishy sounds>

I can't handle all this teasing… Please, enter me! I beg you, dear.

Push yourself inside me and..

AGH— (loud moan) Yes!

Mmm.. I can feel you pushing in.

Your cock penetrates deeper as it stretches out my little princess hole.

It feels good… Yes, please… deeper.

(Moans)

I look up at you with my doll-like eyes, begging for more.

Oh fuck me, dear! Please…

Feel how wet I am for you.

(Giggles)

Please… Impregnate your sweet little princess!

Fuck me until I'm bred, make this belly swell up with your seed!

I want it to be you that fills me up… I NEED your seed planted deep inside my womb.

(Moans)

Shhh… but we have to be quiet.

(Quieter moans)

You fuck me long and deep, staring into my eyes as I hold my mouth from being too loud. Picking up the pace, you begin to thrust faster until I can barely hold myself together.

(Moans louder)

OH by the gods! Your powerful thrusts are breaking me in half.

Yes darling, fuck me deep with your every might…

Make love to me!

(Making out and moaning)

Oh yes, yes!

I can feel your body on top as you hold my smaller frame beneath. My arms reach out to hold the back of your neck for support as you plunge even deeper, making me shiver with every thrust inside.

(Moans louder but trying to stay quiet)

I can't keep quiet if you keep fucking me like this…

Please, let me get on top of you. It'll be quieter if I can control the pace.

You give a few more pounding before pulling yourself out, then roll yourself over to the ground. I lift myself up onto you, holding my gown as I position my legs over your fully erect cock.

You watch as I begin to slide myself down, biting my lips as I feel the full width of your cock head penetrate the opening of my pussy.

Oh, it feels SO much bigger from this angle.

Mmm but it will be a much better position for you to breed me.

You feel me pick up motion as I begin riding you, holding onto your chest and staring back into your eyes.

I love you so much, dear.

So much that I'm begging you to breed me. Breed me and fill me with your love!

(Moans and fucks harder)

I'm going to ride you deep and hard, holding in my moans as much as I can so we don't get caught.

(Giggles)

But I want to make this memorable for both of us, so we never forget.

Oh darling, won't you give your good little princess a gift to remember you by?

Many months from now I hope I can become a mother to your child.

All you need to do is fill me up with your sticky load.

(Moans)

Yes, that's it, fuck me back sweetheart.

Let's fuck together until you cum.

(Moans intensify)

That's it, keep going dear.

I can feel you ready to burst.

Please… breed me!

Yes, breed me with your seed!

I want your baby to grow inside me.

I do!

I want my breast to swell up with milk.

And I want to always keep a part of you with me always…

Please! Breed your little princess!

Yes! Oh by the gods!

I can feel you.. Cumming!

You're about to cum?

Please dear, cum for me… Give me all your love!

(Moans with climax)

Yes! Fill me up

Pump your seed inside my fertile womb.

(Heavy breathing)

Oh, sweetheart… you filled me up completely.

Careful now…

I don't want any to drip, it's too precious to waste…

<Rustling sound, pulling out>

My love, that was so incredible!

Was it pleasurable for you as well?

(Pauses)

Of course I will never forget it, how could I?

Perhaps soon I will become a mother if I have been blessed to bear your child…

I lay my head down on your chest as we both catch our breath, hearing the rhythm of your heart beating into my ear. After a while, I turn to you with a small tear in my eye knowing this moment is coming to an end.

I wish we could stay like this forever…

But even if we're apart, please know that I'll always think of you.

Do you feel the same?

(Pause)

I love you too.

And I always will, no matter what.

(Kiss)

You'll always be my first true love.
