Summer Reading Camp Pre-Service Teacher Application

Benefits, Responsibilities, & Professional Perks

Our overarching purpose of Summer Reading Camp is to ensure that students are engaged in an enjoyable and rigorous experience that targets their growth as readers.

SRC Top Ten Teaching Responsibilities For Pre-Service Teachers in SRC:

- *1. Commit to teaching for the duration of Summer Reading Camp. This year's camp is June 6 -June 30. It is vital that you are there each day from 8:30-2:30 (6 hours).
- *2. Actively participate in the SRC training session and professional development provided.
- *4. Provide support for your partner classrooms in implementing a core Tier1 block each morning based on our updated balanced literacy framework including a daily phonics/word work lesson, and reading and writing workshop.
- *5. Encourage student independent reading and writing through support for student selection of texts and topics as well as support for their engagement and application through reading conferences.
- *6. Utilize the digital data wall provided to determine leveled texts and strategies/skills to target during Tier II instruction using Fountas and Pinnell guided reading texts and lesson resources. Lead small group guided reading groups each day with assigned classrooms.
- *7. Provide support for SRC pre and post assessments and monitor student use of iReady personalized pathway.
- *9. Provide support and reinforcement for positive student behaviors during SRC.
- *10. Proactively and consistently communicate with parents and attend family literacy events during SRC.

SRC Professional Perks:

- *1. $15.00 per hour, 6 hours each day, for 16 days (June 6-June 30). Click the link below to see this year's schedule. 2022 Summer Reading Camp Schedule
- *2. Invaluable experience partnering with veteran classroom teachers to provide authentic reading/writing instruction to students in a small group, guided reading model.

How To Apply:

- *1. Submit an updated resume. Include any evidence of successful reading/writing teaching experience including any literacy courses you have taken.
- *2. An email recommendation from a professor is required. Deadline for applications are due to Dawn Mitchell at mitchelld@spart6.org by Thursday, March 31. Interviews for qualified applicants will be scheduled in April.
