

001. ACTIVITY & REPLIES & FOLLOWING.

This blog will be very sporadically active, taking long hiatuses without much or any warning. I format all my replies with small text and I use icons, however I am more than willing to use big text for those who need it – just ask! I'm not picky about other's choice in formatting style, so long as it's not so edited it becomes difficult to read.

I may take a while to get back to some threads while I reply very fast to others, I may also drop threads without warning – feel free to come to me and ask me about threads, just don't be rude is all I ask!

I am willing to write with minors, however in no way will I write any sort of sexual NSFW with minors. blood/gore/injury nsfw is okay though!

JUST WEST OF WEIRD

003. TRIGGERS & NSFW.

This blog will feature many, many dark themes, as I will write and emphasize the horror of Weirdmageddon and Bill Cipher, as well as other potentially triggering subjects including; anxiety, PTSD, depression, murder, suicide, etc. I tag my posts with // ( ie. blood // ), please let me know if I miss any! NSFW may be present on the blog, however I would like to make it clear any sexual jokes/innuendos will be directed at older verse Mabel ONLY. No exceptions.

002. SHIPPING.

Since I write Mabel as a child and an adult, different rules apply to each verse. They are as follows:

YOUNG VERSE MABEL: I am willing to platonically and even romantically (WITHIN REASON/ puppy love / school yard crush sorta deal) ship Mabel with other muses in her age range (12-14) but, and this should absolutely go without saying, NO NSFW. This is final.

OLDER VERSE MABEL: since Mabel is a consenting adult, ( twenty-two ) in this verse, I am willing to romantically ship Mabel with muses that are +18, but for my own comfort I will also not be writing NSFW. There can be mentions of one night stands or w/e but I am simply not comfortable writing that.

AND SOUTH OF STRANGE

004. ET CETERA.

- My portrayal of Mabel is through the lens of my own experience with mental illness and trauma – so many might consider her very headcanon based instead of canon compliant
- THIS BLOG WILL NOT BE SPOILER FREE.
- There will be references to my own personal OC lore in Mabel's older verse. I can answer any questions one might have!
- Just don't be an asshole and we'll get along great ! <3

Mabel Pines was born to Mr. and Mrs. Pines on a sweltering summer day on August 31st, 1999, in Piedmont, California, just five minutes before her twin brother Dipper. What she lacked in academic excellence she made up for with her creativity and heart, making quick friends with nearly everyone she met — acting as a sort of buffer between the outside world and Dipper's crippling social anxiety.

Gravity Falls Oregon was no different; Mabel adjusted easily to summer life with her Great Uncle Stan, finding the change of pace exciting with endless possibilities — plus there were all sorts of cute boys coming through! Simple summer life was quickly turned on its head when Dipper found a spooky journal in the woods, and Mabel went on a date with her first boyfriend that turned out to be a bunch of gnomes disguising themselves as a teenage boy.

At first, the oddity of the town was manageable — fun, even! — but soon Dipper and Mabel both realized they were in over their heads. Conspiracies, government agents, and the all seeing eye of a dream demon watching their every move. It was all planned, far before the twins were even born, that they would participate in, create, and ultimately prevent the end of the world headed by a God of Nightmares. The promise of a little more summer was all it took for Mabel to tip the scales out of their favor, but the kindness of her family reminded her what was truly important.

Ten long years later, Mabel does her best to let the past stay in the past — she tries to stay focused on the present, to live her life to the fullest. A fear always lingers in the back of her head, not as strong and debilitating as her brother's paranoia, but just enough to make her lose sleep. Did they truly defeat such a powerful entity all those years ago? Is there a way he could have come back?

Was Weirdmageddon and the mental scars it put on her brother and uncles all her fault?

WADDLES THE PET PIG

Ol' fifteen pounder won at the Mystery Fair in the summer of 2012, the best and most trustworthy friend a girl could ever ask for! Waddle has GOT to be the best-est pig in the whole world!

SUMMER MEMORIES

What better to talk about failed summer romances than a scrapbook? Not only that, but it's also a great way to document all those crazy creatures! Also, Dipper's first chest hair! Good times!

GRAPPLING HOOK

Everyone says that a grappling hook is useless until it comes in handy! Sure, may not be great for grabbing a jelly jar from across the room but what about stopping your fall from a TRILLION feet??

VERSE ONE Takes place during / just after the events of Weirdmageddon, where Mabel is twelve/thirteen years old. Mabel is still very much trying to tackle the insecurities of growing up, navigate her own emotions and get ready for high school all while trying to impress her next crush!

VERSE TWO ten years after Weirdmageddon, Mabel is twenty-two years old, a college student that runs a small and rather successful internet shop from her small apartment in San Francisco, California., while occasionally going ghost hunting with Dipper and his hunter friends.
