How does your life change after becoming a National?

When you file this paperwork, the World doesn't change, you've got to be the change. And the way you change is by learning the information and having a firm grasp on how to protect your status. That allows you to be empowered. That allows you to be a belligerent claimant. That allows you to explain it to others. That it also gives you the knowledge for when this all fails, and people are looking for answers for rebuilding, you're the one they will come to. Another way it changes your life is that we say no to code and man-made laws.

Is it important to file an Affidavit for our children?

Yes, your children need an affidavit done also. If they do not have one they will be at risk as a US Citizen. They could be at risk: school, hospitals, & doctors, Public areas- CPS is imposing their over reach. As a national they would be exceeding their jurisdiction.ex: a 12 yo being able to consent for themselves without mom/dad consent.

You can still interact with the government, but it does not supersede the Affidavit. You can subcontract with SS, but it does not override the Affidavit.
