

Direction Setter Bible Study

The Roles of a Leader

Introduction:

The connection between spiritual leadership and a heart living in humble dependence on the Lord is essential for setting direction for the ministry.

What heart, spiritual, and character qualities might impact being successful as a Direction Setter?

What self-leadership skills (personal maturity, emotional maturity and interpersonal skills) might impact success in the Direction Setter role?

Bible Study on the Direction Setter Role.

Read each of these passages and discuss the principles for direction setting to be learned in each.

Answer these questions:

Which heart qualities enabled them to lead effectively?

How does the person or group think about the future and what needs to happen to accomplish the mission?

How does the person or group align others to the mission and set the strategy to accomplish it?

How does the person or group clarify each person's part in the mission?

Matthew 4:18-22 Recruiting and calling the disciples to join the team and the mission

Acts 6:2-4 Disciples set direction and empower others for ministry by delegating

Exodus 18:9-26 Moses listens to his father-in-law and establishes a new organizational structure