Do I desire a relationship with God the way the Saints do? Is there something keeping me from letting God work? Do I doubt that God can do this in and for me? “The Lord is my strength, and he will make my feet as swift as hinds, and enable me to go upon the heights” (Habakkuk 3:19). (St. Francis de Sales, 8th Meditation: Heaven)	“Imagine a beautiful, very calm night and feel the delight of seeing the sky with its countless, different stars. Now add its beauty to that of a lovely day ... Then say boldly that all this beauty put together is nothing in comparison to the excellence of Heaven. “Think of ... the very great number of citizens ... of this happy country: millions and millions of Angels ... the assembly of Apostles, Martyrs, Confessors, Virgins, Holy Women. ... The least of them is more beautiful than the whole world.” “They are there like happy birds, flying and singing perpetually in the air of the Divinity which surrounds them on every side with unbelievable pleasures. Fervently desire this dwelling ... never again will I turn back. ... I will walk towards this happy land promised to us. What am I doing in Egypt?”

The Holy Spirit Prayer

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created,
and you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.

O God, who have taught the hearts of the faithful
by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant that in the same Spirit we may be truly wise
and ever rejoice in his consolation.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
