

OPENING CRAWL:

The Empire spread throughout the Galaxy and conquered multiple Star systems, trying to end the Clone Wars for good. Morally crumbling, corrupted officers of the Imperial party seized power and corrupted what was left from the old Republic for their own deeds, supported by the President..

Under the Lead of Grand Moff Tarkin and President Palpatine, the Imperial party started their plan to construct the DEATH STAR, a Super Weapon which will change the fate of the Galaxy and everything the Republic stood for.

DARTH MAUL, the Leader of the Dark Worlds Alliances, is slowly losing the power he gained throughout the War, however, he plans to unlock the map to Korriban, the secret Planet of the Sith which would make him achieve a new level of power in the Dark Side by the use of the secret lost Kaiburr Crystal

With Maul trying to reach Korriban, he is hunted by Palpatine's Apprentice, Jedi Knight ANAKIN SKYWALKER, the Leader of the Imperial Army and the Jedi's Son of the Suns. While Anakin is facing his demons, his friends try to save him from a tragic fall to the Dark Side of the Force, in one last Battle to save the Democracy that is slowly fading away....

In Space, we see the Imperial Star Destroyer the Eclipse above the systems of Aquilae , a Planet in the Core systems of the Dark Worlds Alliances. As the screen shifts to the Planet, The Imperial Legion, wearing red-black Uniforms, is firing on Mandalorian Soldiers and Mandalorian Battle soldiers.

Then, the screen focuses on a shadow - the shadow of Darth Vader. The shadow moves in a way that mirrors the Dark Lord - the same fighting style and the aggressive, angry mode. Then, a familiar figure is revealing itself - Anakin Skywalker.

His hair is longer than the last time we saw him in Episode 2, he has a scar near his eye - the scar he got at the end of Episode 2. His suit changed - from the Jedi uniform he had in Episode 2, his suit mirrors that of Darth Vader from the original trilogy or Luke Skywalker's Dark Empire costume - which also reminds a bit of Kylo Ren and Darth Maul's tunics. We hear the Imperial march in a dramatic version in the background.

He has a black cape - which mirrors Darth Vader and gives Anakin the same shadow that Vader will later have. Anakin is seen leading the Imperial Army, he completely slaughters the Mandalorian troopers and their Battle droids and their Transports - he became much more powerful than he was in Episode 2.

He is very cold and full of rage, the Mandalorians are no match for him. His eyes are yellow-red for a moment. Anakin kills the Warlord Vollul Collaikrunn, and now is hunting Atha Prime.

As Atha Prime tries to escape, Anakin kills him with his Lightsaber. He slaughters the remaining troops - even the innocent ones.

A quick cut - Anakin is watching the sunset - a scene that mirrors the famous binary sunset moment of Luke in Episode 4. Then, An Imperial General reports to Anakin: "We managed to conquer the Planet. There is no evidence to the Dark Worlds Alliances around here". Anakin seems satisfied. He opens a hologram of President Palpatine: "President, I did my bidding, the Planet is under our control". Anakin's eyes are red-yellow. "Very good, son. You did well"

A quick shift to Anakin's Imperial Star Destroyer: The Eclipse. He opens a hologram - of Obi-Wan Kenobi. "I heard what you did on Aquilae ," Kenobi praises him. The two have a friendly conversation, "I would meet you in Coruscant, I just finished a mission on Monarch"

Obi-Wan reports to him. "Good Obi-Wan, I want you to wait for my instructions. There are still some things we need to do," Anakin orders him in a cold but friendly tone, but this time he is not calling Obi-Wan "Master".

Darth Maul is on the Planet of Sigma Vulcanus. He kills a troop that tries to attack him. He manages to locate a Kaiburr Crystal in a ruined cave. He smiles. Maul takes of another crystal- eventually, the two crystals connect. Maul again smiles. He understood that he managed to unlock the map to Korriban.

Back to Coruscant. Anakin's lambda-class shuttle lands on Coruscant. Coruscant looks much more imperialistic than the last time we saw it. Affected by the War. The montage mirrors Darth Vader's entrance in Episode 6, with the Imperial march on the background. Anakin is greeted by Obi-Wan, Nellith, King Organa, and Jedi Knight Buzz Kraken.

"It's Good to see you Anakin" Obi-Wan and Anakin smile to each other. Kraken and Boodikka report to Anakin that their squad is locating Darth Maul. Anakin is pleased. As Kraken leaves, Anakin is approached by the Imperialist Governor Gromos Kun, who tells him that he is invited to Palpatine's Office after the speech at the podium.

Anakin, Nellith, and Obi-Wan are together. Anakin orders his troops to conquer the remaining systems.

The trio of the trilogy - experienced so much together during these 7 years of War. Nellith asks Obi-Wan where is Bail, and Obi-Wan tells her that he stayed on Alderaan. Obi-Wan is then called by a group of Alderaanian soldiers, which leaves Anakin and Nellith alone.

Anakin and Nellith walk through the Senate Tower. Anakin expresses his desire to end the War and supports the Empire's ideals to conquer the Dark Worlds Alliances's terrorists, despite the Jedi Masters' demands.

Nellith changes the subject of the conversation due to her disagreements with the Empire. Anakin expresses his desire to have a family with her, and while Nellith shares this aspiration, she is worried about how the Council will react. Nellith kisses Anakin on his cheek with no one noticing. Tired of hiding, the Jedi Masters are not important" Anakin declares. "Anakin..you can't say that.." Anakin then leaves for the Imperial party.

Palpatine enters the senate chambers – followed closely by Anakin. Palpatine assumes his place at the head of the conference table. While Anakin is standing next to him. Anakin whispers in his ear: "I hope we won't face resistance this time, President".

"Don't worry, my Young Apprentice. Everything is going to be fine"

Obi-Wan is talking with Doc Newton. "The President would offer today to continue War until the Dark Worlds Alliances are fully gone, the Moff's systems are under his control..most of the factions are under the control of Palpatine's associates" Organa states.

Val Organa agrees with him. Obi-Wan tells King Organa that many Jedi Knights were killed during the War, therefore the Jedi Masters lost a lot of their political power. At the background, there are propaganda broadcasts of Palpatine and Tarkin in the background: "The Empire would make the Republic great again. The Empire would bring peace. This is morning in the Empire". We return to Anakin Skywalker's point of view.

Anakin is seen alongside Palpatine, in a way that foreshadows Vader and the Emperor. Anakin and Nellith stare at each other. Anakin has a cold and angry look on his face. Palpatine declares his intentions to bring back all of the Republican systems to the Empire; Tarkin vows to end Darth Maul's reign.

Palpatine then praises Anakin: "While the Monsters from the Dark Worlds Alliances slaughtered multiple Jedi Knights..Thanks to the Young Jedi Knight Anakin Skywalker..we won the most important Battles of this War..I know the War is on its way to end"

Anakin heads to Palpatine's throne room. In the previous Episodes, when Anakin was trying to get into Palpatine's Office, he was blocked by the Guards. Now, the Guards quickly allow him to enter. Palpatine is happy to see Anakin, and the two start walking across the Office in a way that mirrors Vader and Sidious.

Anakin admits that he is no longer sure about the Jedi's way: "I feel like their way is holding me back..during all this time..I feel that my destiny is not what I was told it is".

"Anakin, remember what I told you. Your destiny is not defined by the Jedi Order" Palpatine then changes the subject of the conversation: "We would not end the War until Maul is captured, I know you have the strength within you to find him and end all this madness".

Anakin is pleased. "After the Battle of Byss..Your guidance helped me a lot to fight in my way..and to use methods that the Jedi never used..it made me much more powerful than I expected. I learned to adopt the mindset of my enemies".

"Anakin, you are the strongest Jedi in the Order..you achieved a new level of power..you won Battles..that neither Obi-Wan nor Buzz Kraken could have survived. You are fulfilling your potential..and your destiny".

Anakin then heads out of Palpatine's throne room. "I might suggest..you should be aware of the Jedi..". "Why?" Anakin asks.

"Ever since the Battle of Byss..you saw that they tried to block my attempts to end the War.."

"I know. I don't trust them anymore, ever since I broke free of their ways, I became much more powerful. The Jedi are weak".

"You are right about it, son. Keep your eyes open about the Alderaanian Senators as well..they are working together". Anakin seems angry. "Yes, President". Anakin says in an angry tone. "I know Nellith is influenced by their stupid Rebellious ideals"

"There is another thing I want you to do, son"

"What is it"

"The Senate have decided to do some changes - Obi-Wan Kenobi's squad shall be sent to Aquilae instead of Alderaan"

"I understand President".

Anakin heads out of the throne room, with Palpatine smiling a sinister smile at the background.

Darth Maul just completes his meditation. He is on the Planet of Sigma Vulcanus, and sits on his throne, opening a hologram of The Emperor. "Emperor,,my Master.." He kneels. "Rise" The Emperor responds. "Before you will get access to unlock Korriban...you have one last mission, my Young Apprentice.." He says, while Maul looks at him with a doubting look.

We are now on Anakin Skywalker's side of the story. Anakin and Nellith sit together on Nellith's high-class apartment. Nellith hugs him and kisses him. At the background, there is a brutal montage of a Battle between Mandalorian troops and the Republican troopers.

"When this War will end..what are we going to do?" She asks.

Anakin: "I would do everything it takes to end this War, I promise you. The Imperial party followed my Orders to invest the Empire's resources in ending the Dark Worlds Alliances once and for all and conquer every Star System in the Galaxy. I spent all these years ago searching for my destiny, but I know one thing..my future is to have a family with you in a peaceful galaxy, this is what I always wanted"

Nellith is worried about Anakin's position at the Jedi Order if their romance will be discovered. Anakin is also conflicted because he is lying to Obi-Wan, but doesn't seem to care about the Jedi Order itself anymore.

"The Jedi Order is weak and crumbling, I lost a lot of my trust in the Order"
"Why?" She asks. Anakin smiles at her and avoids to answer the question. "We need to be happy. I'm going to end the War. I know we can live the life we always wanted"

Nellith: "Anakin..I know you are close to the President..but have it ever crossed your mind that the Republic is not what it once was? That our democracy is slowly dying?"

Anakin's mood changes. "Don't say that, the President is like a father to me. He is trying to end this War, and there are Rebellious Senators who are trying to sabotage it. I don't want you to listen to Val Organa's stupid ideas. All I'm doing is for us"

Nellith looks down at the floor.

Obi-Wan is walking alongside Albus Terrek . "What is it, Master?"

Albus Terrek: "Master Yoda is worried about Anakin, we have seen him during the War. He has changed. He became the strongest Jedi Knight in the Order, but he is losing control..ever since he got Knighted. The President molded him..into something different".

"It's not possible, I trust Anakin. He is just going a bit too far..the President affected him, but I'm sure it would end when the War is over".

"Obi-Wan" Albus then interrupts. "We heard this during the first time Anakin got accepted to the Order, each time you were losing control of him you were blind. You told us you can train the Son of the Suns just as well as Yoda..but you were wrong". Obi-Wan becomes angry, but Albus calms him.

Anakin is in Yoda's chamber. He talks with the Supreme Master. Yoda laughs at Anakin's attempt to pretend that everything is fine. He hits him with his stick and continues to laugh at him. The two agree that the War must end.

Yoda tells Anakin that he is a powerful Jedi, but he has a lot of anger in him that he will need to conquer, till he will become the Jedi that he is destined to be. Anakin has an understanding but doubtful look.

As Anakin is heading out of the chamber, he watches the sunset of Coruscant. He holds his Lightsaber. Then looks at his robotic hand. Anakin is approached by an Imperial Officer. He orders him to prepare their fleets and prepare for an attack on the Dark Worlds Alliances' devastators. Anakin closes his eyes for a moment. He is connecting with Nellith through the Force.

Nellith Valerian is watching the blue-orange skies of Coruscant as well. C3PO and R2 are standing next to her..

Mon Mothma: "How is Anakin?" She asks.

They are surrounded by Imperial ships, which emphasizes the Imperial look of Coruscant.

"What's bothering you?" Mothma asks her. Nellith: "It's nothing". Mothma laughs at her. "I know when you are lying. What is it?".

"It's Anakin. He is acting..weird..something changed about him".

"The War is a complicated time for all of us..I'm not the person I was at the beginning of the War either.."

"He will be fine, it's just..complicated times" Nellith responds.

The screen cuts now to Anakin who meditates in his Imperial chamber. In Anakin's vision, we see the Galaxy in ruins - "Anakin!" In the vision, Anakin sees Nellith screams.

Suddenly, he sees a Dark figure standing in front of her. The Dark figure ignites a red lightsaber and breathes heavily - in a way that mimics Vader. "Maul!" Anakin screams. He suddenly wakes up.

Palpatine enters the chamber and helps Anakin to stand on his feet. "What is it, tell me" He asks. "It was a dream..a nightmare"

"Like the one you told me - on the Nelvaanian cave?"

"Yes" Anakin responds. "In the dream..Nellith was dying..the galaxy was in ruins..and I failed to save her..the Galaxy was ravaged by the War..by Maul..."

Palpatine thinks for a moment and then says: "Let me tell you something, son".

"I was a part of the team that searched for the Son of the Suns..for you".

"What?" Anakin is surprised. "Yes..I helped Yoda, King Organa, and the Jedi Masters..before what happened".

Anakin: "Yes, I know the story"

Palpatine: "No. They never told you what truly happened..the real reason that Yoda stopped the search..".

"What are you talking about"...

"Yoda traveled the Galaxy alongside Master Albus Terrek..until they discovered the Legend of Korriban..the Legend of the Starkiller".

Anakin remembers this name - from his Battle with Maul in Episode 2. He knows instantly Palpatine's direction. "Yoda discovered..that the prophecy of the Sun of the Sons..was wrong..the boy that he was looking for..was the Sith's Chosen One..the Starkiller".

"No, it's impossible," Anakin says. "Anakin..Have I ever lied to you? Each time you listened to me..you became unstoppable" Anakin then storms off the Chamber.

We see Darth Maul, now on his Star Destroyer. He opens a hologram of a Mandalorian General. "Lord Maul, we are heading towards Coruscant"

"Good. Keep going. I want you to bring back the Death Star plans to me..". Darth Maul watches the stars. He holds his lightsaber in his hand.

Obi-Wan Kenobi is on a Battle Base of the Empire. He is talking with Jedi Master Valen, Kwan Yat, Jedi Knight Boodikka and Jedi Knight Kraken. "Bail Organa is going to start the operation on Had Abbadon, He requested specifically to manage the operation with the human Soldiers" Obi-Wan continues. "This decision needs to be allowed by the President and Skywalker". "This is the problem.."

"Anakin and The Imperial Party took over the whole operations".

“At least fewer Jedi died..despite the limited number of Knights that there are right now..” Kenobi responds.

Anakin attends to the Empire’s Battle Base. He is accompanied by the Imperial governors and generals. He opens a Battle plan. There is a hologram of Bail Organa in the background, while the room is filled with Imperial Officers and Governors. Obi-Wan and Anakin’s looks collide.

Anakin stands before all of the Imperial Governors and orders an Operation at the Dark Worlds. “The President gave me his permission. I want you to gather our fleets and conquer the Dark Worlds. This is a very important mission. Do not fail me. I want you to kill the remaining Clone Masters immediately. Do not show them mercy. Is that understood?”.

“Anakin, are you sure the Jedi Knights can handle that? I don’t know if their squads can do this” Obi-Wan is doubtful.

“The Imperial Party would agree with every Order of Anakin Skywalker” Governor Gromus Kun interrupts.

Anakin: “This is the decision of the President and the decision of me. We have a change of plans. “I want you to fight on Aquilae with your squad”

Obi-Wan struggles to accept Anakin’s order but manages to keep his calm.

Anakin and Obi-Wan head out of the control center. They are watching the skies of Coruscant. There are multiple Battleships in the background. The Battleships are resembling the Empire’s fleets from the OT.

Anakin: “We need to talk”.

Obi-Wan: “Can it wait? I need to prepare my squad”

“No” Anakin responds. Anakin again looks at the skies. He explains to Obi-Wan his need for a family, his desire to have a son, and his aspirations to pass his son his Lightsaber.

Anakin declares that he feels that this is his destiny. “Anakin, you made a vow to the Jedi Order” Obi-Wan tries to bring Anakin back to the right track. “It’s not about that. I want you to tell me everything about the Son of the Suns prophecy”.

Obi-Wan instantly understands where Anakin is going to. “Anakin, listen to me, it doesn’t matter what you know-”

“It is” Anakin interrupts. “I was searching for my destiny..since the War started..I believed in the Jedi way to bring peace and balance..but during the War..i managed to find my own way..and it succeeded. I achieved a new level of power which helped me to nearly end this War. Now I understand..that there are other ways to achieve my goals. That my way is the way to achieve my destiny”.

“What’s going on? Don’t talk like that, it isn’t you..this is not what Qui-Gon would have wanted”

“Enough!” Anakin rages. “I was lied..by Yoda..by the Jedi Order..about the prophecy..the Starkiller”

“Anakin, please..don’t enter this mess..it cost the lives of multiple innocents..during the War you proved that the Starkiller prophecy can be wrong..that you are not bonded by the prophecy..that Qui-Gon was right about you”

Anakin turns his back on Obi-Wan. “DV-4” He says. “Where are you going!” Obi-Wan screams. “I’m going to end this War..in my way. And I’m not going to let you..or the Jedi..to stand in my way. Go, Obi-Wan. Go and never come back. I know what I should have done a long time ago.”

Anakin heads into the Shadow Hawk. Obi-Wan seems heartbroken. He tries to stop Anakin from leaving; Anakin forces push him and knocks him down with ease. “Stay away from me!” Anakin points his Lightsaber at Obi-Wan. Obi-Wan, shocked, suddenly opens his Lightsaber.

The Lightsabers of the two collide for a moment, Anakin easily knocks out Obi-Wan. Anakin himself seems shocked for a moment; He closes it and leaves.

Nellith is on King Organa Office. Then, Grand Moff Tarkin enters the Office. “What is it Tarkin?” She asks. “The President is missing, we are afraid that Maul might have kidnapped him. Many troops got slaughtered by Maul and his goons”

“I understand. Anakin is leading the attack, you should try to contact him”
Nellith responds. Tarkin leaves.

“I wish we could do something about this Imperialist authoritarian” Nellith says as Tarkin heads out of Organa’s Office. “I always despised the Imperial party, but since the War started..the Imperial Party and Palpatine seized nearly absolute control over the Republic..I mean..the Empire..when this War will end, I don’t know if Palpatine would allow an immediate return to Democracy” Organa states in a worried tone.

“My mother supported Palpatine before she was killed”. She continues. “Yes, I always had disagreements with your mother, but she was a good woman”.

C3PO and R2 enter the Office. “What is it?” Nellith asks. “It’s Master Anakin..he told me to leave this message to you”

A hologram of Anakin opens. He tells Nellith he is going to end the War, and that when the War will end, he is going to leave the Jedi Order for her. There are tears of happiness in Nellith’s eyes. Tears of hope.

Anakin is at Palpatine’s Imperial palace. He is attacked by Mandalorian troops but slaughters them with ease by using new Force techniques he mastered. “I’m here because I chose to be here, don’t even think to threat me!”.

Anakin sees the skies of Coruscant, ravaged by the War. “President?” He asks. He notices Palpatine’s throne. Palpatine turns around, sitting on his throne, which mimics the iconic scene from Episode 6. His appearance..different. He looks much older..face corrupted.

“What’s going on” Anakin asks. He is suddenly attacked by Darth Maul. Maul catches Anakin off guard, Anakin is knocked down. Anakin’s mood changes instantly.

“I wasn’t completely honest with you, son. I’m..I’m the Emperor of the Sith..I’m The Emperor” Palpatine admits. Maul stand next to him. “This is your end,” Maul says. Maul’s Red Lightsaber is ignited.

The Emperor: "You have grown very strong in the Force...My Apprentice"

Maul then charges at Anakin and they duel with each other. Anakin dominates Maul and is much more powerful than he was at their last Battle. Anakin instantly loses his calm "Good...use your anger..it makes you powerful..your hate.."

"What..what are you" Anakin asks The Emperor while holding back Maul.

"I studied the Dark Side..more then you can imagine..The Jedi had their chance to reclaim the Galaxy for generations..but they failed"

The two Young Apprentices, Maul and Anakin, both are believed to be the Starkiller. The Chosen One of the Dark Side. "I have been waiting for this moment for so long..since the Battle of Alderaan..where I killed your Master" Maul taunts Anakin.

Anakin's eyes turn red. The Emperor sits on his throne and watches his two proteges duel with joy.

Anakin swings at Maul with all of his force, Maul struggles to handle him but fires Force Lightnings at Skywalker who is knocked down but quickly gets up.

Obi-Wan and A team of Republican troops (not Clones) are at space, above Aquilae . "We already defeated the Dark Worlds Alliances above Alderaan at the beginning of the War, we can do it again on Aquilae , come on!"

Obi-Wan jumps out of his ship and quickly kills Mandalorian troops. Bail then shows up, killing a Troop with a Blaster.

Nellith discusses Doc Newton about Tarkin's plan to build the Death Star.

Nellith: "I know Tarkin plans the proposal to build the Death Star under the Empire's control. We must stop it". "R2" She calls the droid. "Can I help you, my Lady?" C3PO asks.

"No 3PO". R2 hands Nellith's Anakin Jedi Apprentice Lightsaber. She looks at it and holds it tightly.

Anakin and Maul continue to duel. Maul unleashes Force Lightning at Anakin who dodges. Anakin is much more in control over the Dark Side, and overpowers Maul. "Good, Skywalker. Use your hate..your anger..remember Qui-Gon..all of the innocents that suffered because of this Monster..think of Nelvaan" Palpatine taunts Anakin to unleash the Dark Side within him.

Maul gets up and tries to hit Anakin and again unleashes Force Lightnings. Anakin is knocked down but quickly regains his position. Anakin's shadow mirrors Vader. After a long sequence of duel, Anakin's hold over the Dark Side is much more powerful than Maul.

He is one with the Dark Side at this moment. His eyes are red again. He hits Maul with all of his Force, and eventually chops his hand as Maul did to him; Anakin forces Maul's red lightsaber to his hand.

Palpatine laughs in the background. Maul seems shocked and scared. "Good....Goooooohhhhh" Palpatine praises. "Your hate made you powerful"

Anakin looks at his mechanic hand. "It's not the.."

The Emperor: "Say it. Remember all we talked about. How your own way made you powerful during the War..have you come to join me? to take your rightful place at my side?"

Anakin: "I will never.."

The Emperor: "Working in secret...because of me the Dark Side took over the Galaxy..this is your destiny. Is it too difficult to decide my son?"

Anakin looks at Maul's eyes. He closes his eyes, unleashes his rage and kills his old foe. At last. Anakin looks at Palpatine, his cold, nearly-emotionless mode changes to a scared and conflicted one. Anakin is shocked.

Anakin: "What are you?"

Palpatine: "I was once the Apprentice..of the most Evil Sith Lord..the Emperor of the Sith..Lord Darth Valorum..The Sith Lord who searched the Chosen One..searched for you".

"Once I destroyed him..I unlocked the secrets of Korriban..I took over the spirits of the Sith Emperors and their powers. Our destinies..they are tied together. You and I..we have a destiny together, son. To bring the Sith back to their glory days, to bring Order and peace to the Empire!”

Anakin: “I’m not like you”

Palpatine: “See..how easy it was for you to defeat Maul..the Battles you won during the War..by using the way I taught you..the Dark Side”

The Emperor has foreseen this moment for so long. He offers Anakin the only solution for his conflict. The Emperor’s words blaze like lightning across Anakin’s mind, the Dark Side has spoken, and for once, it speaks truth. Anakin must challenge the Dark Side..

Palpatine:.” this is a small taste of how powerful the Dark Side truly is. Foolish Jedi..too stuck in their ways, my Master always knew that this is a matter of time before they will get dominated. A plan that was constructed for generations and passed generation from generation..from a Sith Lord to his Apprentice..And the time has come”

Anakin looks at him. “Promise, promise to me that you would help me to stop this destructive conflict” He demands

Palpatine: “Anakin, you were like a son to me since your arrival here. I watched you grow and mature since I met you. I waited for you to be ready to fulfill your destiny, as the Chosen of the Sith.

Only through me, you will be powerful enough to end this chaos, bring order to the Galaxy, and have the family that you always wanted to have..with Nellith. The Jedi are interrupting your way, son. The entire Imperial Fleet is yours to command, Now, fulfill your destiny, and take your rightful place on my side!”

Anakin looks broken and desperate. He kneels before Palpatine. “The Sith’s Destiny is my own” Anakin declares. Palpatine cannot be more satisfied. All of the pieces to his Master Plan came together.

“To truly bring Order..we must work together..we must make the necessary sacrifices for our goal..for your goal,” Palpatine states. “Including the lives of the remaining Jedi Knights..including your friend, Obi-Wan Kenobi”.

"If there's another way.." Anakin tries to avoid the possibility of killing his friend. "Anakin" Palpatine interrupts and put a hand on his shoulder. "Extreme situation calls for extreme measures," He tries to calm him: "Do you want to end the War or not?"

Anakin looks at his Jedi Knight Lightsaber..and throws it to the sky. He forces Maul's red Lightsaber to his hand.

"My body has decayed..I tried to transfer my essence to Clones..but by the use of the Dark Side I managed to survive".

The Emperor returns to his throne. He opens Tarkin's hologram. "Grand Moff, I want you to give the Order to our fleets..to kill the remaining Jedi Knights and the soldiers of the Old Republic"

"Anakin.." Palpatine calls him.

"From now on..you shall carry..a new name..a new title. The title..of a Dark Jedi Knight..A Darth. Like mine..henceforth..you shall be known as...Darth..Vader"

"Thank you, Master".

Anakin: "I will do what I have to do, Master. I won't fail you".

"Lord Vader..I'm going to give you the most important task..take the Imperial forces..and hunt down every Jedi Knight and Rebel who is standing in your way".

"Yes, Master"

The screen quickly shifts, the emerging Vader enters the Shadow Hawk, followed by multiple Imperial ships of the Empire's Legion.

We return to Aquilae . Obi-Wan and Bail duel together. Then, they see a Blaster..which came..from a Storm Trooper.

"Bail what's going on!" Obi-Wan shouts. "I-I don't know..the Imperial forces turned against us"

“Then Yoda’s vision was right..the Empire turned against us..against the Rebel Alliance” Obi-Wan screams and rages.

Obi-Wan kills the Storm-Troopers, while we see Imperial Forces entering Aquilae and again trying to kill all of the Republican soldiers. “Our Army can push them back..but I don’t know if we can handle them any longer” Bail groans and screams. The two fights side by side. “I must see Master Yoda”.

“Commander,” Bail orders. “Prepare all of our Forces against the Empire fleets”.

We see the soldiers firing Blasters at Storm-Troopers. Some are getting killed, but they manage to put up a good fight against the Empire and so far the forces seem equal.

In Coruscant, Doc Newton rushes off to Nellith: “I got a sign from Aquilae , something is going on”.

Doc Newton and the soldiers are looking at her. “The Empire are taking over, their forces killed multiple soldiers from across the Galaxy, and they nearly killed Bail and Obi-Wan”

“Then what we were afraid of..this is happening. The President is turning against us”. Nellith looks at all of them. “We must go to our Base..on Yavin” Newton states. “No, I must find Anakin” Nellith insists.

The screen shifts. We are in the Dark Worlds, Planet Sigma Vulcanus.

The Empire’s fleets are landing on the ground.

Jedi Knight Buzz Kraken, and a few other human soldiers are dueling Mandalorian Forces..from all of the shadows and flames..we see the shadow of Darth Vader. Anakin, the emerging Vader, comes out, surrounded by flames. He brutalizes the Mandalorian forces and slaughters them without breaking a sweat.

“Anakin..what are you doing here,” Kraken asks, confused. Anakin closes his eyes, he is in full Vader mode, and orders his Legion in a cold tone: “Finish them”

Before Kraken understands what's happening, the Storm Troopers are unleashing Blasters on him. He deflects them. "Skywalker..what are you doing?!" Kraken rages.

Anakin responds: "I'm sorry, Buzz".

Anakin's red lightsaber is ignited for the first time. He stares at Kraken. Kraken charges toward Anakin, and there is a small sequence of a duel between the two. Buzz, despite being more experienced, is no match for Anakin.

Lightsabers are clashing; Anakin, fully in control over the Dark Side and not holding back with it, predicts every attack of Buzz.

Eventually, he kills him brutally; he Force Chokes him, and puts his Lightsaber right at Kraken's heart. Anakin's eyes are red-orange. Before there is a conflict in him, he conquers it.

Anakin opens a Hologram of Governor Gromus Kun. "There are still Jedi Rebels across the Galaxy, Lord Vader. The President asked me to leave them to you"

"Good" Anakin responds.

Meanwhile, in Aquilae , Obi-Wan and Bail continue to Battle the Empire's Storm Troopers. "I don't know if I can handle them any longer -"

"Me neither..we must call more Forces!" Obi-Wan screams.

Obi-Wan Kenobi radios to the Soldiers in Coruscant.

Palpatine is in his throne room. He opens a hologram of Tarkin. "Grand Moff...you have special approval to destroy the Senate Tower"

"As you wish, President"

"You may fire when ready," He says.

Then, one of the Commanders presses a button..the Senate tower
EXPLODES

There is a shift to Palpatine's palace, all of the Senate is invited. Nellith and Mothma quickly enter it, preparing to watch the speech. Everyone are prepared to watch Palpatine's speech, who is entering the podium. There is a sadistic look on his face. In the background, there is a montage of Anakin slaughtering Jedi Knights brutally by fully submitting to the Dark Side.

He is seemingly invincible. The Jedi Knights are nothing compared to him; He overpowers them brutally. Hunting them one by one. He uses Force Choke and his Lightsaber movements are more and more mirroring that of Darth Vader and Darth Maul. There is also a montage of Obi-Wan and Bail on Aquilae .

One of the Senators reports: "The President is going to set a speech..he called all of us for an emergency meeting after the destruction of the Senate tower"

Nellith: "Who destroyed the tower? What is the Empire's interest in destroying their base?"

The Leaders of the Planet of Mon Calamari are asking this as well.

Mothma: "I don't know, but President Palpatine said that this is a Jedi rebel, and the entire Senate is supporting him"

At the Senate podium, there is a massive hologram of Palpatine.

"We are horrified...this is a tragic day to the Empire. The terrorist forces..of the REBELS..destroyed the Senate tower..a tower which symbolized the democracy of our Republic..."

Nellith is not understanding what is going on. Moff Tarkin stands before the Senate. "To end the terror of the Rebellion forces... to keep our Empire stable..to protect it from chaos..we have decided to declare the President..as our Emperor! The Emperor who would keep us safe from the Jedi Rebellion terrorists"

"Any Rebel..who will betray the Empire..will be declared as a traitor and will be executed"

Nellith is raging. She screams: "You can't do it! This is against the Republic's ideals! This is against democracy and human rights! It's treason!"

Tarkin looks at her: "The Republic is no more, Lady Valerian, and you don't want to be declared a traitor, don't you?"

Nellith now looks scared. "Leave her alone, Tarkin" Mothma protects Nellith.

Tarkin looks at Nellith with a disrespectful look.

Anakin is on a violent rampage across the Galaxy. There is a long sequence of him slaughtering Jedi Knights on Sigma Vulcanus. The Knights try to put up a fight against him, but they are no match for Anakin. He looks invincible, cold; a Machine.

His power is much beyond their limits despite their better experience; He force-chokes a Jedi Knight and kills the other with his Crimson Blade. He then slaughters a soldier and snaps another Soldier's neck.

Two Rebellion soldiers try to fire Blasters at Anakin, but he stops the Blaster bolt in mid-air, firing it back toward the Soldier. Despite his strength, Anakin gets injured by a few blasters and Jedi Knights, but he still manages to kill them. Anakin and the Storm troopers storm into a cave. Anakin opens a hologram of The Emperor. "The Jedi knights are killed, my Master".

"Good..I sense the Dark Side within you..Lord Vader. I want you..to locate the Sith's Kaiburr Crystal ..which will give you access to the map of Korriban..the Planet where you will enter the trials of the Sith...after you will complete the trials..you will be a true Lord of the Sith..and we shall have peace"

Anakin enters the cave. He sees the Kaiburr Crystal in front of him. He orders his troops to take it and heads towards his Star Destroyer.

Nellith quickly goes into hiding. She puts a hood on her head, which mirrors Leia in Episode 4. She talks with General Newton. "Take all of our Forces to Aquilae ...this is the first Battle of the Rebellion"

"Yes, my Lady"

Multiple Rebellion soldiers are seen on space, battling Imperial ships. "For The Rebellion!" They scream.

We are again on Nellith's pov. She is hiding from the Storm Troopers. She pulls out a Blaster to protect herself. "Anakin..where are you?" She talks to herself.

Obi-Wan and Bail manage to disarm the Storm-troopers Legion.

"What" Obi-Wan responds. "What's going on?"

"The Senate tower..was destroyed..Anakin..he is helping the Empire..we saw a hologram of him, killing Buzz Kraken..commanding the Imperial destroyers".

Obi-Wan looks down at the floor. He knows its true.

"I'm sorry, I know he was important to you..but this the first Battle of the Rebellion"

Obi-Wan: "Anakin is leading the Empire..he is not the weak and naive boy he was at the beginning of the War..he became too powerful..I don't know if he can be defeated"

Obi-Wan ignites his Lightsaber again, ready to fight the Storm-troopers.

Anakin's rampage continues; He overpowers any rebel and Knight who is daring to challenge him. He chokes with no mercy; kills with his Crimson Blade. He is leading the Imperial Legion masterfully; completely dominating anyone who is trying to challenge him.

Jedi Knight Kwan Yat is trying to stop Anakin. As Lightsaber blows are traded, Yat manages to land a few hits on Anakin injuring Anakin more then he was injured earlier, which now sends Anakin further towards Dark Side.

Anakin screams in pain, Surrounded by Darkness; with red eyes, Anakin completely gives up any morals and fights much more aggressively. Yat fails to match him; Anakin slaughters the Jedi Knight with his Crimson Lightsaber, but struggles to stand on his feet due to a few injuries he sustained, but manages to hold his own and gets over it.

The entire Planet is now under the Empire's control. He orders his Legion: "We are done here. Prepare my ship"

There is a shift to Aquilae . Rebellion Soldiers are entering Aquilae . They get the upper hand for a moment against the Empire's fleets.

"But what are we going to do with Skywalker? He is leading the Empire, he hunted Jedi Knights and Rebels, and the Star Destroyers are under his command".

Obi-Wan looks down at the floor. Bail looks at him for a moment.

"Leave Anakin to me. This is the only way"

"Yes General Kenobi"

Newton's hologram fades away.

Anakin watches the space from his Star Destroyer: The Eclipse. He is commanding Devastors and fleets. "Fire" He orders, and in a moment, Rebellion ships are exploding.

He sits alone. There is a sequence of Imperial Droids causing terror and fear. Multiple Rebels are getting killed.

An Imperial officer enters Vader's chamber.

"Lord Vader, the Rebels on Aquilae destroyed three Devastors..Jedi Knight Obi-Wan Kenobi is among them," Anakin thinks a moment before answering.

"I want you to use all of our forces on Aquilae to kill that man. At all costs. Do not fail me, Commander"

"Yes, Lord Vader."

"Dismissed"

Vader continues to sit alone and watches the Empire's forces dominating the galaxy.

On Aquilae , however, things are different. The Rebellion forces managed to push the Empire back. Obi-Wan takes it on his own, supported by the Rebellion fighters and leading them alongside Bail.

“Come on!” Bail screams. He fires at an Imperial Commander who is leading a devastator. Obi-Wan manages to counter a devastator and kills another Imperial General. In the background, we see propaganda messages of Tarkin against the emerging Rebellion..

Nellith, hooded, continues to escape through Coruscant. “Mothma!” She helps Mon Mothma to keep a low profile. She steals a spaceship from the Empire’s Base, and starts to fly toward the Alderaanians’ party base. As her ship lands, she is reunited with King Organa and Doc Newton.

“We must go to Yavin 4!” She screams. “Coruscant is no longer safe for us, Alderaan, and Yavin is all we have”.

Val Organa thinks a moment before answering. “You are right, Valerian, prepare our fleets”

“Yes, your excellency” A Rebellion general orders.

“Where are the remaining Jedi?” Nellith asks.

“I don’t know..” Organa responds.

Darth Vader looks at the battle from his Star Destroyer; Then is approached by an Imperial Commander. “I want you to fire at the Jedi Masters’ chamber in Coruscant” Anakin orders.

“My Lord..”

“Do it now”.

“Yes Lord Vader”.

Vader closes his eyes for a moment. We see Baxter Valen and Albus Terrek at the chamber, watching the Star Destroyer preparing a blast...the blast is unleashed..

BOOM!

The Jedi chamber is destroyed. Vader is shocked, for a moment there is a glimpse of regret on his face. He sheds a few tears; Lucifer-style. He looks at his robotic hand. Obi-Wan feels the destruction of the temple through the Force; his fate is slowly dying.

Nellith watches the destruction as well from the Alderaanian party's base in Coruscant. "Nellith, we have no time!" Mothma screams to her. They steal an Imperial ship and head toward Yavin 4.

Obi-Wan rushes off to the Rebellion Battle Base. "Help me!" He screams towards his soldiers.

Vader, at The Eclipse, is ordering the tie fighters to enter Aquilae .

Tie Fighters are entering Aquilae . "Fire!" General screams. Soldiers are entering their ships; The fleets are firing at each other. Anakin's fleet and Obi-Wan's squad are battling.

Nellith is with Mon Mothma on a Rebellion ship, outside of Coruscant.

"The Rebellion won't give up..we are not going to let Tarkin and the Imperial Governors to cause terror and fear"

Anakin's Lambda-Class Shuttle is landing at the Imperial Palace. Anakin is getting a standing ovation from the Stormtroopers. Palpatine then approaches him and puts a hand on his shoulder. "I sense the strength within you, my Young Apprentice. You are going to end this war"

"Thank you, Master".

Palpatine puts his hand on Anakin's shoulder

The Emperor: "The Darkness inside you..yes Lord Vader..you are fulfilling your destiny"

The two walk through the Emperor's throne room. Anakin shows Palpatine the Crystal. The Crystal starts to scan Anakin. Palpatine laughs in the background.

The Crystal then opens.

Sidious: "The map to Korriban.."

Anakin looks cold and emotionless. A shadow of the man he used to be.

The Emperor: "Take the Crystal to Korriban..the secret Planet of the Sith..there..you will unlock your potential in the Force..you will start the trials of the Sith..from a Dark Jedi Knight..Knight of the Sith..you will become a true Lord of the Sith..you will become stronger than every Jedi and Sith..you would fulfill your destiny..to bring peace..and order".

Anakin has an understanding look.

"I will do what I have to do," Lord Vader says. "But there are still Rebels we must hunt, I ordered my Legion to locate the remaining Rebellion bases".

"Good. With each Rebel and Jedi, you killed..your strength in the Dark Side increased.."

Nellith is navigating a rebellion ship. "R2..help me here I don't know how to navigate this thing!" She screams.

"You will get us killed!" Mothma screams.

Their ship is landing on Yavin. Mothma and Nellith are reunited with the Rebellion members. "It's good to see you, we lost a lot of soldiers, but I believe the Rebellion would survive this. Obi-Wan and Bail are leading our forces on Aquilae "

Rebellion Doctors then helps Nellith to take care of her injuries. "Allow me" She says.

The Rebels continue to duel the Storm-troopers on Coruscant as well. But the room is lit in red...we hear the sound of a Lightsaber igniting..we see Darth Vader, accompanied by the Empire's Legion.

"Fire!" Newton screams.

Anakin slaughters the entire Rebellion soldiers with ease. Boodikka and Newton then try to fight him with no success; Boodikka finds herself put in a Force Choke and loses the ability to breathe; Newton is killed by Anakin's crimson blade.

The rest of the Rebels are completely demolished by Vader's powers. Vader watches the dead bodies of the Rebels. He then takes the Death Star plans..

Back in Yavin, Nellith and Anakin connect through the Force. Nellith sees a shadow..which mirrors Darth Vader. Out of the shadow, Anakin comes out.

"Ani, where are you?"

Anakin's shadow fades away. Nellith is not understanding what's going on...the shadow and darkness of Anakin are consuming her as well; she falls and loses the ability to breath..

Obi-Wan and Bail's squad manages to hold its own. They manage to hide.

"We must go to Yavin.." Organa says.

Obi-Wan disagrees with him. "If we will leave..we will lose the first Battle of the Rebellion.."

Anakin, at the Imperial Palace, is reported that Bail and Obi-Wan are missing. He is raging. "Send all of our fighters after them!" He screams.

Obi-Wan and Bail, at Aquilae , manage to outsmart the Empire's tie-fighters. They are killing a few Imperial troops. Obi-Wan opens a hologram of a rebellion doctor, he tells Kenobi that Nellith lost consciousness. One of the Rebellion soldiers is checking Nellith. She is meanwhile not waking up.

The screen shifts back to Anakin. He is standing next to Palpatine while they are surrounded by Imperial Officers at the Emperor's throne room. Meanwhile, a hologram of Tarkin is reporting to them that most of the Rebellion Fleets are destroyed. Palpatine is satisfied. "Leave us" He orders the Imperial Officers.

"My Young Apprentice," Palpatine says to him. "Take the map..I want you to travel to Korriban..there..you will become a true Lord of the Sith..the true Starkiller.The War is nearly over..you are bringing peace to the Empire..you will live the life you always wanted, I promise you".

Nellith is waking up, surrounded by Mothma and a few other Rebellion troopers.

“We saw..we saw Anakin Skywalker..Leading Imperial fleets..killing Jedi Knights”.

Nellith is not accepting it. “I must find him..he was deceived by Palpatine”

Mothma tries to convince her that Anakin is too far gone. “Anakin is the Emperor’s Apprentice, you must let him go”.

Nellith: “I must find him”

Nellith is getting up and is preparing a ship. It is revealed that she has a tracker on Anakin’s Shadow Hawk ship..

In Aquilae , Obi-Wan and Bail’s troopers are seemingly getting the upper hand. “The Empire is building the Death Star..we must stop it..but I..I must find Anakin” Obi-Wan says.

Bail: “You are going to kill him aren’t you?”

Obi-Wan: “I’m going to..I want to save him..from himself”

At Palpatine’s throne room. Palpatine orders his advisors to leave the throne room.

“My fleets would destroy the Rebellion in no time.”

“But I must..I must face Obi-Wan. He..he is holding me back..from fully achieving my strength in the Dark Side”

“You will kill him when the time will come.” Palpatine responds in a confident tone.

Anakin is entering the Shadow Hawk. “Stay here” He orders his Legion. Anakin is followed by DV-4. His ship is heading out of Coruscant. He opens the map to Korriban. "DV-4" He orders his droid. DV-4 enters hyperspace mode and connects with the Kaiburr Crystal. Eventually, Anakin is on a deserted realm. He reached to Korriban.

His ship lands there. His hands are shaking. He understands that from now on - there is no way back. Anakin enters the temple of the Sith. He is then approached by a group of Sith cultists - "Welcome, Lord Vader. We've been expecting you". These are Palpatine's advisors from Episode 6.

Palpatine's advisors opens a hologram of him. Anakin then sees the throne - the throne of the Sith Emperor. Palpatine and the advisors are guiding Anakin through the Korriban's temple. Walking next to the Sith Throne. While Anakin is walking, droids are taking care of the injuries he sustained which slowly sends him towards being a machine. Anakin has a serious injury on his chest; the droids are taking care of it which causes Anakin to breathe heavily and struggle. They are also taking care of his injuries on the legs and on the cheek. He walks slower.

Anakin's eyes are red-yellow. He is hearing voices; the same voices of Nellith he heard at the nightmare. He hears Qui-Gon's voice. "Anakin.."

He is losing control; unleashing the Dark Side and completely destroying the Korriban's droids, a wall in the fortress and shaking the Sith fortress' ground with the sheer use of the Dark Side.

He struggles to breath; he breathes heavily in a way that foreshadows his future self. Anakin learns how to use to the Dark Side much better than he used earlier. He is trained as a complete machine. His turn to the Dark Side is almost complete. He is Darth Vader; more machine than man. However, there is still a look of conflict in his face. He feels that what he is doing is wrong. He knows he is being trained as a machine and as a complete weapon. The Emperor's hologram fades away.

"Anakin!" He hears the voice of Nellith. His eyes return to their original mode.

Nellith hugs Anakin. "What are you doing here?" Anakin asks.

"I..I want to save you..before you'd do something you'd regret"

"I'm doing this for us"

“No..you..you are on the wrong side. Please, leave everything behind. Join the Rebellion..it’s not too late”

Anakin loses his calm. “No! The Rebellion is causing chaos and terror, they are ruining what I’m trying to do for our future, don’t you turn against me”

Anakin returns to Vader mode. He notices Obi-Wan Kenobi behinds her. “Traitor!” He screams at Nellith. He starts to choke her.

“Leave her Anakin. I followed her. She knew nothing” Obi-Wan rages.

Anakin releases her. Meanwhile, Anakin opens the hologram of the Death Star’s plans.

“After everything you and I did to destroy this thing..you are now building this. What happened to you?”

“This would always be built. Now, generations from now..so at least it will be under my control.”

Obi-Wan looks down at the floor, then at Anakin: “I feel the good in you—the conflict. Come back with me, I will help you. I’m on your side..ever since I met you on Kessel”

“It’s too late. I did what I had to do. There is no conflict”

Obi-Wan: “This is not what Qui-Gon would have wanted. This is not your destiny”

Anakin: “The goal is to become powerful..to bring balance and order. I did what I had to do”

Obi-Wan: “If this is all you care about, then you really didn’t learn anything that I or Qui-Gon taught you”

Anakin: “You know, everyone thinks that their way is the only way. You. The Jedi. The Sith. The truth is, it doesn’t matter which way you fight as long as it works, and I’ll use whatever it takes to achieve my goals”

Obi-Wan: "Then there is another lesson you forgot. Never put passion, about principles. Because even if you win, you lose. What is your new name?"

Anakin looks down. "Vader. Darth Vader".

Obi-Wan: "I'm sorry I couldn't save you..Anakin"

Anakin's eyes are red again. His crimson blade is ignited. Obi-Wan ignites his blue saber—the two charge at each other. Trading blows and swings.

Anakin swings aggressively - Obi-Wan defends. Still conflicted. Anakin is surrounded by the flames of the Sith temple that are also surrounding the Sith Emperor's throne.

There is a long sequence of duel between the two former friends. Light and Dark.

Wipe - Coruscant. Palpatine's throne room. He hears a familiar voice.

It's Yoda. He mocks the Emperor.

"Master Yoda..you survived"

Yoda is not in the room. The two are connecting through the Force.

"I have waited for this moment..for so long" Palpatine declares.

"To fool the Jedi and the republic for years ever since the first clone wars, you managed....Stronger then every sith emperor, your strength in the dark side is"

Yoda: "Your appearance now suits the image of a sith "emperor"

"Don't worry, soon Lord Vader would fulfill the prophecy of the Starkiller..the same prophecy that you discovered with your stupidity"

"To corrupt the son of the suns and turn him into the Starkiller, you managed, but just as darkness took over..Light to meet it, there would always be"

"So be it"

The Emperor rises from his throne. Yoda is preparing. Palpatine fires Force Lightnings, and Yoda deflects. The two start to trade blows with the Force; they are not using Lightsabers.

A long sequence starts. Palpatine reveals his secret force power; Force storm. Yoda predicts the attack.

A wipe back to Korriban. Anakin is slowly gaining the upper hand over Obi-Wan. As long as Anakin's hatred increases, his control over the Dark Side improves. He is surrounded by massive flames. His shadow mirrors Vader, so is his fighting style. "There is no escape" Darth Vader taunts Obi-Wan. The two continue to trade blows. Anakin punches Obi-Wan at the face with his mechanic hand.

Obi-Wan struggles to hold his own, but manages to identify Anakin's injuries that he sustained earlier. He starts to target it. Anakin notices it and rages. He manages to shield his injuries and Force chokes Obi-Wan aggressively.

The long sequence continues, while there is also a montage of the Rebellion forces battling the Empire on Aquilae .

Now we wipe back to Coruscant.

Palpatine and Yoda continue to duel with a sheer use of the Force. They are seeming equal. Yoda already knows of Sidious' Force Storm ability and mainly focuses on absorbing it and trying to go for a defensive position.

"You fool!" The Emperor screams. Yoda laughs at him and mocks him.

Palpatine continues to unleash Force Storms.

The Long sequence continues. The two are showing new levels of power in the Force. Yoda seems not bothering at all.

Anakin and Obi-Wan's violent duel continues. Anakin moves slow, but is aggressive and brutal. He tries to choke him with his mechanic hand but Obi-Wan manages to dodge. Anakin's image appears much more threatening due to his cape being surrounded by flames. Anakin is not showing mercy to Obi-Wan and quickly tries to strike him down with a number of blows with the crimson blade.

Vader and Obi-Wan continue to clash. Anakin uses more and more skills he used in his short Dark Side session training - Obi-Wan barely defends himself. Anakin is slowly losing control and fights much more aggressively.

Anakin screams in anger. Obi-Wan continues to duel across the ruins of Korriban, heading out of the Sith temple.

Back in Coruscant, Yoda and Palpatine's battle continues as expected; neither of them is gaining the upper hand. Yoda manages to turn Palpatine's Force Storms back to him - Palpatine absorbs it. Palpatine unleashes Force Lightnings at Yoda - but just as Yoda turns it back to him - Palpatine's face changes - he absorbs the Force Storm and manages to restore his face as we saw them earlier.

Palpatine: "The spirits of the Dark Side..are controlled by me..you are not winning here Jedi Master. The Sith Empire is restored"

Palpatine unleashes a massive blast of Force Lightnings -Yoda absorbs it as the climatic music dominates at the background. "Where are you?!"

Yoda laughs at Palpatine. Then disappears.

Back in Korriban - Darth Vader and Obi-Wan's duel is intense. Two former friends. Dark Jedi Knight, Knight of the Sith - and a Jedi Master. Light and Dark. Obi-Wan lands a serious hit on Anakin's injuries.

Anakin loses control - and takes off his Black cape so he can move faster. Anakin charges towards Obi-Wan and starts to hit him multiple times and choke him with the Force- Obi-Wan spins and continues to block him. Their moves are mirroring that of Vader and Obi-Wan in Episode 4.

Anakin fights aggressively - one with the Dark Side of the Force. Obi-Wan struggles to hold him back. Anakin kicks him at the face. Anakin's fighting style is a combination of Luke Skywalker's speed and agility and the brutal style of Darth Vader or Maul. Obi-Wan continues to be dominated but manages to hold himself by targeting Anakin's injuries. Darth Vader knocks Obi-Wan down.

"There is no escape" He taunts.

In Aquilae - Bail Organa and his soldiers are slowly dominated by Darth Vader's legion of Dark Storm troopers. The Empire's fleets are slaughtering the Rebellion's ships.

Bail tries to contact Val Organa and Mon Mothma. He opens a hologram of Mothma.

"We'd need to back off from Aquilae " Mothma says. Bail disagrees.

"The Rebellion needs time to built itself, we can't continue the Battle of Aquilae " .

Bail understands, and starts to order the Rebels to gather ships and escape from Aquilae ..

A quick shift back to Korriban. We see the background of the Planet - completely broken and ruined, which mirrors Anakin and Obi-Wan's broken friendship.

Anakin rages and screams, trying to dominate Obi-Wan in every direction possible. Obi-Wan only survives because of Anakin's injuries.

Obi-Wan manages to injure Anakin's leg. Anakin backs off and gasps in rage. Obi-Wan is not attacking him - just looking at him.

"Anakin..I'm sorry - for all of it"

Anakin: "The Rebellion is dead..the war is over, and when I kill you, I will have killed the last Jedi!"

Obi-Wan's mood changes. He understands Anakin is consumed by hatred and darkness.

"Amazing. Every word of what you just said was wrong. The Rebellion is starting today. The war is just beginning. And I will not be the last Jedi. There would always be light in the galaxy to fight the darkness that consumed you"

"I will destroy the Jedi..I will destroy you..Yoda..I will destroy all of it"

"Then the man I know is truly dead.."

“Yes, he is”

“so be it...Darth”

The continue to clash, while the ground is slowly crumbling. Their duel is at its peak - absolutely intense. Despite his injuries, Vader is still superior and dominates his former Master. Vader chokes Obi-Wan with the Force - but is forced to release him because of the ground that is crumbling below him. Obi-Wan manages to hit him in the face.

Vader screams and rages - his rage is so strong that rocks are flying next to him. The long sequence continues.

Obi-Wan manages to land a serious blow on Anakin's leg - the ground is slowly crumbling under them. Anakin's hold over the Dark Side dominates Obi-Wan - who manages to barely survive. Anakin strikes Obi-Wan a deadly blow and knocks him out.

For a moment, he is conflicted. He looks at his robotic arm. Obi-Wan however, is not noticing the conflict and in a hasty move - injures Anakin badly on his wound. Anakin gasps and now returns to a Vader mode- his eyes return to the red color. He is surrounded by massive flames and is completely out of control. All he wants is to kill Obi-Wan. However, he is seriously injured.

Anakin attacks Obi-Wan with all of his force - he tries to physically dominate him as well as with a use of the Dark Side. The mountain is crumbling again - Anakin seems to get the upper hand - however suddenly - Obi-Wan catches Anakin off guard - and chops his legs. Anakin is shocked and tries to hold the mountain.

Obi-Wan tries to save Anakin from falling despite everything - however Anakin loses his hold and is consumed by the lava. Obi-Wan sheds a tear due to his friend's fall.

Obi-Wan heads back to his ship and takes Nellith. Their spaceship is heading toward Yavin.

In Coruscant, Val Organa convinces Palpatine that Alderaan is not involved in the Rebellion. As Val leaves, Palpatine tells the Imperial Officers to keep a close eye on Alderaan.

Palpatine opens a hologram of Tarkin, and sends him to Korriban. He senses that something happened to his Apprentice.

Obi-Wan lands on Yavin. Imperial doctors are checking Nellith. Obi-Wan then connects with Yoda through the Force.

He turns to Yoda and says: "I have failed, Master."

Yoda looks at him and closes his eyes: "No good is it to teach you when you have not yet learned patience! Humility! Just like your Apprentice!"

Obi-Wan shakes his head and offers an excuse as his reply: "But Anakin was my brother. The Force was stronger with him than everything I sensed - just like Master Qui-Gon said, and I thought that I could be as good a teacher as you. I believed I could help the Son of the Suns to fulfill the prophecy"

The Jedi Master points a crooked finger at him: "Most important lesson have you learned! Now a great burden you carry." Kenobi squeezes his tear-filled eyes shut and drops his head in defeat. Yoda then comforts him - and tells him that he is on Dagobah and that the Light would always face the Darkness - this is how the Force works. Yoda then fades away.

The Doctors are reporting to Obi-Wan and Bail that Nellith is pregnant - and that the Force that Anakin used on her strained her and shortened her life span. Obi-Wan and Bail vow to save her from the Empire - and decide that she will be sent to Dagobah, where no one can find her.

Bail and Kenobi agree that the Rebellion is just beginning. Obi-Wan reveals that he is going to hide in Tatooine - and that Owen Lars and Beru, Anakin's childhood friends, will be relocated to there as well, and when the son of Nellith will be burned, he will live in Tatooine with Owen Lars and Beru. Bail declares that he is going to lead the Rebellion alongside Mon Mothma.

We are in Korriban. Anakin manages to climb to the ground. His appearance is ruined - he is completely burned and scarred. A broken shadow of his previous self. Tarkin finds him and orders the Stormtroopers to take him.

On a Star Destroyer, The Emperor (hologram) looks at Anakin - who is on a bacta tank. Imperial droids are putting pieces of metal on him..Palpatine's face are corrupted again due to his strength and use in the Dark Side. He is now in his fully-formed Emperor look.

After a short sequence - the process is complete. Anakin becomes a full-on machine - Fully formed Vader. Vader gets out of the bacta tank, and kneels before Palpatine. He asks him where is Nellith. The Emperor tells him that Anakin's force killed her and lies that Tarkin found her corpse. Vader rages and shakes the entire room.

Vader then gets out of the room - and looks at the space, completely alone. A hologram of The Emperor opens and asks Vader if he is ready to his task - to kill the remaining Rebels. Vader only replies: "Yes, Master". Vader watches the Death Star's construction. He is completely alone, a shadow of the man he used to be. From the hero, he is now the ultimate Villain, a fallen Angel.

We are in Tatooine. A planet we haven't seen since Episode 6, "Return of the Jedi". Obi-Wan watches the binary sunset, while Owen Lars and Beru, whom are starting their new life away from the Underworld of Kessel, are spotting him in the background. Despite everything that happened, Kenobi knows one thing: there would eventually be hope, a New Hope, and despite the strike of the Empire, the Jedi would return.
