The World Today: International Politics

Dear students,

After the break, we will begin our new Unit of Inquiry, Vote! It's the right thing to do! Over the break, we would like you to be an inquirer and find a current article about the politics in any country. You must then read and highlight all the important information in the article. Once we come back, we will create a collage on the board with your articles from around the World.

Criteria

The article must be:

- current - less than 1 year old
- a news article and NOT an opinion piece
- about the political situation (change in government, power, conflict, election) in any country
- printed - please bring into class on Monday, March 26
- highlighted- with only the important information

Resources you may use:

- Newspapers
- Websites (you can choose another one if you wish)
 - <https://www.cnn.com/specials/politics/world-politics>
 - <http://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/politics>
 - <https://www.thestar.com/news/world.html>
