

Greene Street Friends School Board of Trustees 2025-26

Karen Campbell (Joined in 2022), Clerk

Karen has 20+ years of experience in education spanning PK-12 to higher education spaces. Currently she is the Director of IDEAL MED at the Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania. In this role, she oversees all of the diversity and wellness initiatives that support students in undergraduate medical education. Besides her diversity and inclusion work, she also has expertise in financial aid and accessibility in education - issues that are major priorities for the board as we think about the school's future.

Karen's only child is a graduate of Quaker schools and attended GSFS from PK to 5th grade. She is also a member of Greene Street Friends Meeting.

Russell Endo (Joined in 2023)

Russell Endo [Russ he/him/his] served the City of Philadelphia Solicitor's Office in Health and Human Services with Penn's Prayer for the City on his cubicle wall. He received a Liberty Bell from the Mayor's Office out of gratitude. A Sansei (third generation Japanese American) whose parents and grandparents were in Relocation Camps in WWII and were aided by Friends, Russell is named after adopted by heart Quaker Grandma Harriet Russell. As a poet he learned poetry from Etheridge Knight in the Free People's Poetry Workshop of Philadelphia [Etheridge called him "Little Brother"] and has served on boards including American Friends Service Committee, Awbury Arboretum Association, Friends Neighborhood Guild, and a number of Quaker School boards [Germantown Friends School, Wilmington Friends School, currently Sidwell Friends School]. A graduate of Yale College and University of Pennsylvania Law School, Endo resides in Central Delaware and teaches older adults at University of Delaware Osher Institute in Dover Delaware. He is a member of Green Street Monthly Meeting.

Kia Holifeld Wimmer (Joined in 2018)

Kia Holifeld Wimmer is a current GSFS parent and an intellectual property attorney. She works in-house for Birkenstock. Kia attended the University of Pennsylvania and then Harvard Law School.

Margaret Guerra (Joined in 2024) Co-Clerk

Margaret has worked in Quaker institutions for 40 years, first at Friends Child Care Center, and for 31 years at Abington Friends School. She retired from Abington Friends in June. As an educator, Margaret engaged in community building activities within and beyond her school, including as a Critical Friends Group coach and volunteer crew leader with Friends of the Wissahickon. Margaret has 2 adult children who graduated from Quaker schools, and her daughter attended Greene Street Friends from 3-5th grade. She can often be found hiking in the Wissahickon with her spouse, Frank and dog, Cliffy.

Keighan Gunther (Joined in 2024)

Keighan Gunther serves as Program Manager of Supplier ESG Initiatives at The Vanguard Group, leading their strategy, operations, and research efforts to create sustainable and diverse supply chains. Prior to Vanguard, Gunther founded and led the Philadelphia branch of The LaunchCode Foundation, a nonprofit opening doors to free tech education and job opportunities for aspiring developers and technologists. In his prior role as Vice President of Company Relations and Associate Vice President of Philadelphia Operations, he and his team worked to engage Philadelphians in free training and career development programs and support placement through their apprenticeship and direct-hire employment initiatives.

Over his career, Gunther has worked in the Philadelphia region for over 10+ years supporting various organizations such as JEVS Human Services, Philadelphia Youth Network and Family Support Line in workforce development, post-secondary education, business development, strategic partnerships and children's advocacy. Keighan earned a B.S. in Family Studies and Child Development from Texas Woman's University as well as a M.S.S. in Macro Social Work from Bryn Mawr College. Keighan resides in Germantown with his husband, Michael, their son Jordan who is a member of the class of 2029 at GSFS, and their small zoo of cats and dogs.

Michelle Holland is the Head of Greene Street Friends School. She began her journey at GSFS in July 2023. She is a seasoned leader who is committed to the values of a Quaker education. Michelle began her tenure in Quaker schools almost three decades ago and has served as a teacher, Assistant Principal, and the Lower School Principal. In addition to her school leadership, Michelle serves on the board of the Friends Council on Education (FCE), including a term as FCE board clerk. Michelle has a bachelor's, master's, and a doctorate degree. Michelle and her husband, Mark, are parents of two former Friends School students, who are young adults.

Michelle is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. and she is passionate about matters of leadership, faith, governance, growth, diversity, equity, inclusion, justice, and belonging.

Michael Landsburg (Joined in 2019)

Michael Landsburg is the Chief Development Officer for NFI, overseeing real estate transactions for the company. Michael's two children currently attend Greene Street Friends School.

Eric Mayer (Joined in 2024)

Eric has been an educator for 30 years, currently serving as Head of School of Lansdowne Friends School. He spent 20 years at Westtown School (Quaker) as a teacher, department chair, coach, and ultimately division director. Eric departed Westtown to serve as Head of School of an international school in Rome, Italy from 2014-2022. A father of four Friends school graduates, Eric resides in Lansdowne and worships at Lansdowne Monthly Meeting.

Robin Mohr (Joined in 2024)

Robin Mohr is currently the clerk of Green Street Monthly Meeting. She served as executive secretary for the Friends World Committee for Consultation, Section of the Americas, from 2011-2024. Before FWCC, she worked for California Child Care Resource & Referral Network, Lasallian Education Fund, American Red Cross, and spent three years in the international volunteer corps of ATD Fourth World Movement. She grew up in California, graduated from the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service, and is fluent in Spanish and English. She is married to Chris Mohr and they have two young adult children, both graduates of Quaker schools.

Deborra Sines Pancoe (Joined in 2023)

Deborra has 30+ years of experience in Quaker education in a variety of roles - upper school dean/assistant director, lower school division director, department chair, librarian, coordinator for community outreach, and director of Quaker life. Currently, Deborra is the Associate Director of Friends Council on Education where she leads professional development workshops and directs the Membership Renewal Process. She consults to schools on governance, Quaker decision-making, and on diversity, equity, and inclusion with a focus on anti-racism education for white people. She has been a co-leader of the SEED diversity seminar for Friends schools.

Deborra is a member of Abington Friends Meeting and has served on the Abington Friends School board as well as the Plymouth Meeting Friends School board.

Deborra serves her community of Jenkintown holding an elected seat on Borough Council.

Deborra has three adult children, who all attended Friends schools, and eight grandchildren.

David Redenbaugh (joined in 2024)

David has been a Greene Street parent for 15 years. As a Quaker who is passionate about Friends Education he has spent years serving on Boards and Committees of other area Friends schools. David is a longtime member of Buckingham Friends Meeting where is currently serving as Clerk of the Meeting. He has worked in technology education for Apple Inc, as a sound engineer, and as a property manager. David is a landlord and small scale property developer offering affordable housing primarily in Germantown.

When not raising one of his three children (ages 8 weeks to 18 years) or working to improve a property David can often be found tending to his 4 pet goats who live at his family home in Bucks County and are a regular attraction at the Greene Street Friends School Fall Fair.

Jesse Smith '87, Esq. (Joined in 2018) Recording Clerk

Jesse Smith '87 serves as Recording Clerk and on the Alumni Association Board, bringing a wealth of legal expertise to both roles. Jesse graduated from Hampton University with a degree in Political Science. He obtained his Juris Doctorate from Thomas M. Cooley Law School. Jesse is currently the Department Head of the Children and Youth Justice Department at the Defender Association of Philadelphia.

Linda Singleton (Joined in 2024)

Lisa Vaccarelli (Joined in 2025)

Lisa brings 20 years of advancement experience to her role as Vice President of Solutions at Plus Delta Partners. In this role, Lisa leads product strategy and service delivery for Plus Delta's suite of best-in-class performance improvement solutions designed to help nonprofit organizations build measurable, sustainable increases in fundraising revenue. Prior to joining Plus Delta Partners, Lisa served as a senior advancement leader at Temple University in Philadelphia, PA. She began her advancement career at her alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, where she earned her bachelor's degree in political science and her master's degree in education.

Lisa and her family have been part of the Greene Street community since 2022. She and her husband Amos live in Mt. Airy with their daughters Ruby (Class of 2026) and Clara (Class of 2028).

Jerry Mizell Williams (Joined in 2022) Clerk, Governance

Jerry is a member of the Governance Committee and attends Green Street Monthly Meeting, where he serves as archivist and clerk of the Education Assistance Committee. A member of the Board of Managers and the Corporation of Haverford College, as well as a trustee of Friends Publishing Corporation, he is the author of published works on colonial Latin America and matters of faith.

Christina Young (Joined in 2021) Clerk, Finance

Christina is the Vice President of Global Streaming Technology Assurance and Analytics at NBCUniversal. In this role, she leads technology governance, compliance, business continuity, and video quality experience & analytics for Peacock along with other Direct-to-Consumer platforms. In her almost 12-year tenure at Comcast, she has held leadership roles in operations strategy, reliability and chaos engineering, business transformation, asset management, process and program management.

Christina is passionate about equity in education for low-income and first-generation students. She is a founding and current executive board member of the First-Generation and/or Low-Income Alumni Network at her alma mater, Stanford University, and also a proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Christina earned a BS in Industrial Engineering/Management Science & Engineering at Stanford in 1993.

Christina resides in Mt. Airy with her husband, Larry, along with her daughter, Maryn, who is a member of the Class of 2025 at GSFS, and puppy, Fudge Cake. She also has three older children – Malcolm (29), Maya (26), and Macy (23)- who are in various stages of college and independence.