Staff Advancing Diversity & Inclusion (SADI)

Call for Nominations for SADI Leadership Committee & Subcommittees

We are seeking Duluth & Twin Cities Medical School Staff to join our Staff Advancing Diversity and Inclusion \(SADI\) Leadership Committee & Subcommittees!

The mission of SADI is to identify, create, and support initiatives to advance the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion for University of Minnesota Medical School staff, both on the Twin Cities and Duluth campuses. The SADI Leadership Committee and Subcommittees are dedicated to providing valuable learning and engagement opportunities, resources, support options, and helping the Medical School move towards a more diverse workforce to better serve our school and community.

Find out more about the Leadership Committee and Subcommittees by reading through our Missions and Current Initiatives. Additionally, please feel free to review the Charter which includes additional details about the committee structure and membership descriptions and expectations. To improve accessibility and with members located on multiple campuses, SADI commits to maintaining an inclusive and equitable meeting environment by continuing to hold ALL SADI Meetings virtually via Zoom.

We welcome staff who are interested to submit a self-nomination, with the following items:

- Current department;
- Reason why joining the Leadership Committee or a Subcommittee interests you;
- Description of what you have done to enhance your knowledge/skills related to Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion and how you have demonstrated what you have learned;
- List any specific skills or experience you could contribute to the Committee or Subcommittee (e.g. website/social media content development, event planning, facilitating sessions, etc.)

Please submit this information by FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 17TH at 5:00pm for review by a nomination committee who will make recommendations to the SADI Committee for membership.

Please email SADI@umn.edu if you have any questions.

Thank you!

- SADI Leadership Committee
