Woodside Counseling Corner

Woodside Counseling Corner is an online, fluid resource designed to help parents and students stay up to date on important information, upcoming events, and opportunities related to college planning, career exploration, and citizenship readiness. This space is continually updated to ensure families have quick access to opportunities that support student success.

Please continue to check back for upcoming events and activities.

Take a moment to review the NNPS Calendar SY 2026-2027.pdf

Please see the mandatory orientation dates for 8th block PE below. Please note that enrollment is now closed.