

GYPSY WIND

Artist: Jack Hammer featuring Billy Bob Thornton

Composers: JP Botha

Album: Jack Of All Trades

Year: 1987

Lyrics:

Abilene on a Monday morning
Rain falling down outside
Met a girl on the MoPac railroad
She just took me for a ride

Can't stay too long, I must be moving
Seems like this old town
Just ain't what it used to be

Chorus:

I really can't say, where I may be tomorrow
Feel that old gypsy wind, a-blowing
Feel that old gypsy wind, a-blowing

It was far across the river, down in Mexico
I met a senorita said she hailed from El Paso
Didn't want to give me a name
She gave me all the love just the same
She was young and I was old
Feel that gypsy wind blow cold

Chorus

Hitched a ride to LA
The Promised Land or so that say
Kings and queens, statues were the stage
Ain't no place for a travelling man
Can't stay too long
Though I must be moving
Seems like this old town just ain't what it used to be

I really can't say, where I may be tomorrow
Feel that old gypsy wind, a-blowing
Feel that old gypsy wind, a-blowing
Gypsy wind a-blowing
Gypsy wind a-blowing

Gypsy wind a-blowing

Gypsy wind a-blowing, blow away

Gypsy wind a-blowing, blow away, blow away

Gypsy wind, blow away.
