

Clues

Jane Goodall	If you were a monkey, Where would you be? On the ground, Or up in a tree? This clue can be found right outside the classroom!
Anne Frank	This clue can be found among the books Stay in the classroom and have a look!
Malala Yousafzai	This clue is hidden Where your teacher can demonstrate And show you new things Like how to circumnavigate!
Michelle Obama	Stay in the classroom to find this clue Look in the place that's used to cook food!
Amelia Earhart	To find this clue you'll have to take a trip To a place that you like to run, play and skip!
Emma Watson	Look in the classroom to find this next clue You'll find it near the technology That helps you learn something new!
Marie Curie	What must you do Once you find something new That involves getting your hands All dirty in chemicals too
Frida Kahlo	You'll need a line leader to find this clue Make sure to go to the place that leads you to something new...
Serena and Venus Williams	Tennis itself Is a pretty fast game Think of where you go When you want to run and play.
Maya Angelou	Walk down the hall to find your next clue But stop and look close To a place full of books Where you can get your information dose

1. Jane Goodall (tree)

a. I work in the jungles

Mostly in the trees

Some may say

My best friends are chimpanzees

Who am I?

2. Anne Frank (class library)

a. I am a young girl

Who spent most of my life in hiding

I share my story with you

Through my famous piece of writing

Who am I?

3. Malala Yousafzai (document camera)

a. I believe education

Is the most valuable skill

For all girls to learn

And to have a free will

Who am I?

4. Michelle Obama (kitchen area)

a. I am an influential women

With a powerful voice

I am known for encouraging Americans

To make a healthier choice

Who am I?

5. Amelia Earhart (playground)

a. I was not like other girls

I wanted to fly a plane

I was the first woman to fly

And that's why you remember my name.

Who am I?

6. Emma Watson (class computers)

a. I am an actress

I can wave a wand with ease

But I can also write speeches

Like the well known HeforShe

Who am I?

7. Marie Curie (bathroom sink)

a. I really like science

Specifically chemistry

I received the Nobel Peace Prize

And earned my place in history

Who am I?

8. Frida Kahlo (hallway by artwork)

a. I come from a country

With bright fruits and bold colors

My gift to the world

Was my art in watercolors

Who am I?

9. Serena and Venus Williams (basketball court by playground)

a. We are two sisters

Who really caused a “racquet”

We’re two amazing athletes

Winning is our habit

Who are we?

10. Maya Angelou (by the library)

a. My poetry was a window

To the African American movement

My work through my writing

Brought about a cultural improvement.

Who am I?