CSUB AV - Interdisciplinary Studies (General) (2024 - 2025)

Complete at COC before Transfer

- Full CSU GE Certification (A-F)
- American Institutions
- Major Lower Division
    - 12 units of lower division coursework
        - Courses may be taken in any discipline related to the student's career or educational goals (must be CSU transferable units)
    - Introduction courses to CSUB AV areas of interest, such as:
        - BUS 201, ECE 101, ADMJUS 101, PHILOS 220, PHILOS 102, PSYCH 101, SOCI 101, etc.
- Additional units as needed to reach 60 units minimum (max of 70 towards BA degree units)

Complete at CSUB AV after Transfer

- Upper Division General Education (9-12 units)
    - Upper Division Science – UD B (3)
    - Upper Division Social Sciences – UD D (3)
    - Junior Year Diversity Reflection – JYDR (3)
    - Upper Division Writing – GWAR (3)

- Upper Division Major Requirements (42 units)
    - INST 4860: Interdisciplinary Internship - 3 units
    - INST 4908: Senior Seminar [CAPSTONE] - 3 units
    - Proposed Major Coursework - 36 units
        - Students will need to include proposed coursework distributed appropriately among the different fields of study
            - Courses available at CSUB AV will determine which areas you can combine for your degree.
            - Students may include EDTE or EDSP (teacher prep) coursework as part of their major requirements.
            - Example of proposed coursework: 12 units of CAFS, 12 units of SOC, and 12 units of PSYC
    - Students will complete the Interdisciplinary major request with their academic advisor
        - The request must include a brief explanation of why another existing major is not suitable for the student's career or educational goals (this request will be reviewed by the student's advisor, major director/chair, and School Dean).
        - Students will need to provide a major title, however their graduation diploma will read "Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies"
        - This degree program is suitable for students interested in multiple disciplines.

The Religious Studies program examines religion from outside the framework of any particular belief system. The Religious Studies faculty encourages students to explore critically with rigor and enthusiasm the beliefs and assumptions of the world they inhabit. The program engages students in a perennial conversation with unanswerable questions, vital ideas, and struggle for meaning exemplified by human religiousness so as to encourage intellectual curiosity, increase insight, and create responsible citizens.
